Contents

Introduction ..............................................................6

The anti-environmental movement .................................7
  Greenwashing .........................................................8
  Grassroots organizing .............................................10
  Physical violence ..................................................11
  The role of government ..........................................12

Six types of anti-environmental groups .........................15
  Public relations firms ............................................15
  Corporate front groups .........................................16
  Think tanks .........................................................17
  Legal foundations ................................................17
  Endowments and charities .....................................18
  Wise Use and Share groups ...................................19

A catalog of anti-environmental groups .......................23
  The Abundant Wildlife Society of North America ............23
  Accuracy in Media ...............................................24
  Alaska “Support Industry” Alliance ............................26
  Alliance for America .............................................27
  Alliance for Environment and Resources ....................29
  Alliance for a Responsible CFC Policy .......................30
  American Freedom Coalition ....................................32
  Blue Ribbon Coalition ..........................................33
  B.C. Forest Alliance ..............................................34
  Business Council for Sustainable Development ...............36
  California Desert Coalition ....................................38
  The Cato Institute ................................................39
  Center for the Defense of Free Enterprise ....................41
  Citizens Coalition for Sustainable Development .............42
  Citizens for the Environment ..................................43
  Citizens for Total Energy .......................................44
  Coalition for Vehicle Choice ...................................45
  Committee for a Constructive Tomorrow .....................47
  Consumer Alert ..................................................48
  Defenders of Property Rights ..................................50
  Environmental Conservation Organization .................51