Contents

Preface ix

1 The Entrepreneur in Economic Theory 1

2 Entrepreneurship: Productive, Unproductive, and Destructive 25

3 Enterprising Rent Seeking: The Case of Corporate Takeovers 49

4 Enterprising Litigation and Entrepreneurs Enmeshed in the Law 73

5 Innovative Effort and Enterprising Sabotage 97

6 Innovation as Routine Process and Its Depressing Effect on Profit 113

7 Models of Optimal Timing of Innovation and Imitation 135

8 The Rich Mutual Gains from Technology Transfer: Dissemination and the Market Mechanism 159

9 The Mechanisms of Technology Transfer, I: Enterprising Imitators 179

10 The Mechanisms of Technology Transfer, II: Technology Consortia in Complementary Innovations 193
11 On Efficiency and the Pricing of Transferred Technology
   223

12 Toward Improved Allocation of Entrepreneurship  239

   Epilogue: The Entrepreneur in a Model of Growth  259

Notes  271
References  291
Index  303