Contents

Abbreviations xi
Preface xiii

Introduction 1

PART I. A THEORY OF INTERSUBJECTIVE MORAL INSIGHT 19

Introduction to Part I 21

Chapter One. The Object, Method, and Aim of Discourse Ethics 23
   I. A Formal Pragmatics of Moral Interaction 23
   II. The Discourse Ethics Enterprise 30

Chapter Two. Elements of Moral Discourse 37
   I. Beyond Overlapping Consensus 38
   II. The Structure of Rational Conviction 41
   III. The Content of Practical Argumentation: Norms of Action 45
Chapter Three. Deriving a Dialogical Principle of Universalization
  I. Conflict as Context
  II. Premises
  III. Derivation
  IV. The Dialogical Intersubjectivity of (U)
  V. Implications
Postscript to Part I: Insight as Intersubjective

PART II. SOLIDARITY: DISCOURSE ETHICS AND THE GOOD

Introduction to Part II

Chapter Four. Moral Discourse and Conceptions of the Good Life
  I. The Distinction Between Ethical and Moral Perspectives
  II. The Priority of Right in Discourse Ethics
  III. The Relevance of Goods in Moral Discourse
  IV. Solidarity and Moral Values

Chapter Five. Discourse Ethics and the Good
  I. Questions of Priority
  II. Charles Taylor: The Priority of Good
  Excursus. Rawls on Justice and the Good
  III. A Constitutive Good for Discourse Ethics?

Chapter Six. The Solidaristic Basis of Moral Insight
  I. Moral Formalism: Clues from a Reading of Humboldt
  II. The "No Alternatives" Thesis: The Latent Power of the Other
  III. Insight and Solidarity
  IV. Concluding Summary
PART III. DISCOURSE AND PARTICULARITY

Introduction to Part III

Chapter Seven. Care and Discourses of Application
  I. The Ethics-of-Care Critique of Impartialism
  II. The Discourse-Ethical Response: Discourses of Application
  III. Rapprochement with the Ethics of Care?

Chapter Eight. Situating Discourse Ethics: Toward the Analysis of Real Discourses
  I. An Obvious Question
  II. The Legal-Political Institutionalization of Discourse
  III. Decentering Rational Consensus: Further Questions
  IV. Insight and Solidarity: A Wrap-Up

Bibliography

Index