Contents

Contributors xi

Introduction 1

PART I
Economic Growth and Its Measurement

1. Economic Growth Before 1860: Revised Conjectures
   Thomas Weiss 11

   Richard Sylla, Jack W. Wilson, and Charles P. Jones 28

   Donald Schaefer 53

4. Economic History and Economic Development: An American Perspective
   Barry Poulson 70

PART II
Institutions in Economic History

5. Institutional Change in American Economic History
   Douglass North 87

6. Seasonality in Nineteenth-Century Labor Markets
   Stanley Engerman and Claudia Goldin 99

   Lance E. Davis, Robert Gallman, and Teresa D. Hutchins 127
8. The Finance of Capital Formation in Midwestern Development, 1800–1910
   William N. Parker 168

PART III
Political Economy in American Economic History

9. Toward a New Synthesis on the Role of Economic Issues in the Political Realignment of the 1850's
   Robert William Fogel 179

10. Entrepreneurial Experiences in the Civil War: Evidence from Philadelphia
    J. Matthew Gallman 205

11. The Nineteenth-Century Silver Movement and Aggregate Price Uncertainty
    Colleen M. Callahan 223

12. The Triumph of Oligopoly
    Louis Galambos 241

Notes 257
Index 315