

Table of Contents

New Economic Partners – Dynamic Asian Economies and Central and Eastern European Countries : Main Issues and Summary of Discussions by André Barsony and John West	7
DAE/CEEC Economic Integration: Recent Trends and Impediments
Introduction by John West	21
Country Profiles
Hungary by Peter Balázs	29
Korea by Jung-Chae Chung	32
Poland by Janusz Maronowski	35
Thailand by Penprapa Vongkovit	39
Taiwan by Chen-Chung Deng	42
Malaysia by Kim-Leng Yeah	45
Hong Kong's Economic Relations with China by KY Tang	49
Austria's Role as a Bridge Between Eastern and Western Europe by Eduard Hochreiter	63
Finland's Changing Economic Relations with Russia and the Baltic States by Juhani Laurila	73
Poland as an Economic Bridge Between the NIS and Western Europe by Anna Wziatek-Kubiak	79
Structural Adjustment Policies in Korea's Development: A Critical Review and Possible Lessons for the CEECs by Kim Kihwan and Catherine Lee	85
Guidance Policies for Small and Medium-sized Enterprises in the Asian NIEs by Phillipe Regnier	107
Structural Adjustment in Thailand: Some Lessons of Experience by Wisarn Pupphavesa	131

Financial Market Policies During Korea's Post-War Development 139
by Yung Chul Park

Financing Economic Transformation in Hungary 151
by Balázs Botos

The Role of Financial Liberalisation in Thailand's Economic Development 155
by Pongpanu Svetarundra