

Contents

Acknowledgements	viii
Abbreviations of Sources	ix
Introduction	1
1 Rationalism Turns to Dialogue	5
Reason and Modern Society	5
Dialogic Rationalism	7
Humanising Rationalism	7
Habermas and Dialogic Rationalism	8
Putnam and Dialogic Rationalism	9
Extending the Conversation among
Contemporary Theorists	12
Thinking Dialogically and Rhetorically	15
Dialogic Relativism	17
A Guide to the Book	18
2 Resituating Reason	20
Stories of Reason	20
Habermas's Tale of Two Reasons	20
Enlightenment	20
Communication	22
Communicative Evolution	23
The Communicative Self	25
Putnam's Story of Reason and Science	28
The Spell of Science	28
Argumentative Reasoning	30
Habermas and Putnam	31
Giddens on the Experience of Modern Reason	32
Lloyd and the Image of Reason	33
Elster and Rationality as Success	35
Bookchin, Reason and Ecology	37
Questions	38
3 Argument in Theory	40
The Concept of Argument	40
Habermas and the Dialogic Theory of Argument	40
Argumentative Speech	40
Irrationality	42

The Unified Diversity of Argument	43
Dialogics of Theory	45
Defending Argumentative Consensus	49
Putnam and the Dialogic Theory of Argument	50
The Argumentative Quest	50
Ambivalence and Intellectual Virtues	55
Dialogue and Truth	57
Conversations about Argument and Dialogue	59
The Conversation between Habermas and Putnam	59
Billig's Rhetorical Psychology of Arguing	61
Rawls and Disagreements	63
Giddens on Argument and Dialogue	65
Tannen's Linguistic Theory	69
Sheldon, Goodwin and Gender Differences in Argument	70
Rhetorical Perspective: Towards 'Double Arguability'	70
4 Arguing 'the Good Life'	72
Reason and 'the Good Life'	72
Habermas and Argumentative Hope	74
Societies	74
Mythic Worldviews	75
Modern Worldviews	78
Risk and the Lifeworld	80
Arguable Worlds	82
Yes and No	85
Putnam, Reason and Human Flourishing	90
Conflicting Realities	90
Different Values, Different Facts	93
Rational Ends	94
The Conversation about the Rational 'Good Life'	98
The Conversation between Habermas and Putnam	98
Rawls and Liberal Society	99
The Cultural Politics of Argument: Nancy Fraser and 'Struggle over Needs'	100
Giddens and the Hope of Transformation	103
Unbounded Dialogue	106
5 Landscapes of Rationalism and Postmodernism	108
Rationalisms and Postmodernisms	108
Non-Dialogic Reason	108
Habermas on Strategic Action	108
Elster, Sen and New Instrumentalism	111
Nussbaum and Ethical Deliberation	116
Bookchin's Scientific Hope	118
Haraway and Cyborg Society	119
Postmodernity and Postmodernism	120
The Postmodern Climate	120

Feyerabend's Epistemological Relativism	120
Lyotard's Heterogeneous Universes	121
Lyotard in the Perspective of Putnam and Habermas	121
Rorty: A Postmodern Accommodation?	127
6 Dialogic Rationalism and Dialogic Relativism	131
A Case for Interpretation: Galileo the Rational Hero	131
Galileo's Dialogue in Rationalist and Relativist Perspective	133
Saying 'No' to Science	133
Reasonable Limits	134
Unacceptable Responses, Unacceptable Requirements?	136
Double Arguability	139
Interpreting Argument	139
Rationalism, Relativism and the Ambiguities of Contradiction	140
Applications	143
Re-imagining Reason	146
Conclusion: A Culture of Intellectual Encouragement	149
Index	153