

CONTENTS

PREFACE TO THE UPDATED EDITION	vii
PREFACE	ix
PART 1: THE RISE OF MOVIE CULTURE
1. The Birth of a Mass Medium	3
2. Nickel Madness	18
3. Edison's Trust and How It Got Busted	33
4. D. W. Griffith and the Forging of Motion-Picture Art	48
PART 2: THE MOVIES IN THE AGE OF MASS CULTURE
5. Hollywood and the Dawning of the Aquarian Age	67
6. The Silent Film and the Passionate Life	86
7. Chaos, Magic, Physical Genius and the Art of Silent Comedy	104
8. Movie-Made Children	122
9. The House That Adolph Zukor Built	141
PART 3: MASS CULTURE IN THE AGE OF MOVIES
10. The Moguls at Bay and the Censors' Triumph	161
11. The Golden Age of Turbulence and the Golden Age of Order	175
12. The Making of Cultural Myths: Walt Disney and Frank Capra	195
13. Selling Movies Overseas	215
14. The Hollywood Gold Rush	228
PART 4: THE DECLINE OF MOVIE CULTURE
15. Hollywood at War for America and at War with Itself	249
16. The Disappearing Audience and the Television Crisis	269
17. Hollywood's Collapse	286
18. The Promise of Personal Film	305

PART 5: THE ENDURING MEDIUM

19. Nadir and Revival	321
20. Hollywood and the Age of Reagan	339
21. From Myth to Memory	357
22. Independent Images	373
NOTES ON SOURCES	383
BIBLIOGRAPHY	399
INDEX	405