Contents

List of Plates vii

Notes on the Contributors viii

Introduction by E. Stina Lyon and Joan Busfield xi

1 Surrealism, Mass-Observation and Researching Imagination
   Jenny Shaw 1

2 Imagining the Community: Some Reflections on the Community
   Study as a Method
   Geoff Payne 17

3 Researching Moving Targets: Using Diaries to Explore Supply
   Teachers’ Lives
   Marlene Morrison and Sheila Galloway 34

4 Uncovering Key Aspects of Experience: The Use of In-depth
   Interviews in a Study of Women Returners to Education
   Susan Smith 58

5 Every Picture ‘Tells a Story’: Uses of the Visual in Sociological Research
   Barbara Harrison 75

6 Visual Imagery and the Iconography of the Social World:
   Some Considerations of History, Art and Problems for Sociological Research
   Anthony Pryce 95

7 Ethnography, Ethnicity and Work: Unpacking the West
   Midlands Clothing Industry
   Monder Ram 112

8 Emotional Labour and Qualitative Research: How I Learned
   Not to Laugh or Cry in the Field
   Karen Ramsay 131

9 The Research Process: Context, Autonomy and Audience
   Geoff Cooper and Steve Woolgar 147
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>10</th>
<th>Gender, Power and Epistemology: Can Men Know Feminist Truths?</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>A. Mark Liddle</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>11</td>
<td>Doing What Comes Naturally? Standpoint Epistemology, Critical</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Social Research and the Politics of Identity</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Paul Connolly</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

| Index | 200 |