

Contents

---

Preface	xiii
List of Contributors	xvi
1. Theory and Methodology of Labour Market Policy and Evaluation: An Introduction	1
Günther Schmid, Jacqueline O'Reilly and Klaus Schömann
1 Target versus Programme-oriented Policy Evaluation	2
2 Market and Policy Failures	6
3 The Nature of Modern Labour Markets	8
4 Policies and Policy Types	10
5 Assessing Policy Impacts	12
6 Objectives, Structure and Content of the Handbook	16
7 Concluding Remarks	30
PART I: METHODOLOGY OF LABOUR MARKET POLICY EVALUATION
2. Experimental and Nonexperimental Evaluation	37
James J. Heckman and Jeffrey A. Smith
1 Statement of the Evaluation Problem	37
2 Experimental Evaluation Methods	45
3 Nonexperimental Evaluation Methods	52
4 General Equilibrium	82
5 Summary and Conclusions	82
3. Experimental Evaluation of European Labour Market Policy	89
Anders Björklund and Håkan Regnér
1 The Evaluation Problem and Experiments	90
2 Difficulties with Randomization	91
3 Experiments in Practice	93
4 Proposals for European Labour Market Policy	105
5 Conclusions	111

4. Longitudinal Designs in Evaluation Studies	115
Klaus Schömann
1 Defining the Longitudinal in Evaluation Studies	117
2 Applications of Longitudinal Designs in Evaluations	127
3 Conclusion	136
5. Aggregate Impact Analysis	143
Lutz Bellmann and Richard Jackman
1 Methodology and Models	144
2 ALMPs and the Outflow Rate from Unemployment	156
3 Conclusions	160
6. Cost–benefit Analysis	163
Lennart Delander and Harald Niklasson
1 The Framework	163
2 The Valuation and Aggregation of Impacts	168
3 Difficulties and Possibilities	173
4 Examples	181
5 Concluding Remarks	196
7. Process Evaluation: Policy Formation and Implementation	198
Günther Schmid
1 Implementation Research: The State of the Art	199
2 A Cybernetic Model of Process Evaluation	205
3 A Categorical Framework for the Evaluation of Organizational Regimes	209
4 Performance Measures of Process Evaluation	217
5 Conclusion	227

PART II: EVALUATING LABOUR MARKET POLICIES IN SELECTED TARGET AREAS

8.	Unemployment Compensation and Labour Market Transitions Günther Schmid and Bernd Reissert	235
1	Insurance Schemes versus Assistance Schemes	236
2	Beneficiary Rates	244
3	Wage-replacement Rates	249
4	The Direct Costs of Benefit Systems	252
5	Effects of Unemployment Benefits on Labour Market Transitions	256
6	Unemployment Insurance and Active Labour Market Policy	267
7	Conclusions	273
9.	Job Opportunities for the Hard-to-place Christine Erhel, Jérôme Gautié, Bernard Gazier and Sylvie Morel	277
1	The Hard-to-place	277
2	A Typology of Measures	282
3	Some Observations about National Experiences	288
4	Evaluation	292
5	A Critical Assessment of Evaluation Studies	300
10.	The School-to-Work Transition Paul Ryan and Christoph F. Büchtemann	308
1	Policy Goals and Options	310
2	Evaluation Methods	311
3	Evaluation Findings	316
4	Conclusions	340
11.	Transitions between Family Formation and Paid Employment Colette Fagan and Jill Rubery	348
1	Why Is Policy Intervention Necessary to Reconcile Employment with Parental Responsibilities?	349
2	Comparative Overview of Maternal Employment Policy Regimes	353
3	The Impact of Different Maternal Employment Policy Regimes on Women's Labour Supply	364
4	Conclusions	372

12.	Exit Options from the Labour Force	379
	Bernard Casey
1	The Extent of 'Early Retirement'	379
2	The Role of Policy	381
3	Evaluation	390
4	Conclusions	397
13.	Improving Job-matching through Placement Services	402
	Ulrich Walwei
1	Labour Markets and Intermediaries: Sources of Market and Policy Failures	402
2	Institutional Organization and the Role of Placement Services	405
3	Assessment of Placement Service Activities	410
4	Efficiency of Employment Services: Findings of Evaluation Research	421
5	Conclusions and Consequences for Future Evaluation	427
14.	Occupational Segregation, Discrimination and Equal Opportunity	431
	Jill Rubery, Colette Fagan and Friederike Maier
1	Trends in Gender Segregation of Employment	433
2	Processes of Occupational Segregation and Their Implications for Policy	436
3	Monitoring and Evaluation of the Impact of Policy on Segregation, Discrimination and Equal Opportunity	446
4	Conclusions	455
15.	Life-long Learning and Skill Formation	462
	Albert C. Tuijnman and Klaus Schömann
1	The Life-long Learning Concept	465
2	Policy Targets of Life-long Learning	467
3	Labour Market Theories and Life-long Learning	469
4	Research Studies on Life-long Learning	472
5	Research on Compensation and Accumulation	480
6	Implications for Labour Market Evaluation	484

16. From Unemployment to Self-employment: Labour Market Policies for Business Start-up Nigel Meager	489
1 Explaining Recent Self-employment Trends	490
2 Problems of Evaluating Schemes Supporting Self-employment for the Unemployed	494
3 Evaluation Methodologies	501
4 Evaluation Results: Scheme Impacts	504
5 Conclusions and Pointers for Future Research	512
17. Employment Opportunities for the Disabled Lei Delsen	520
1 Definition and Characteristics of the Target Group	521
2 Institutional Context	524
3 Open Employment and Legal Intervention	527
4 Open Employment and Support Services	530
5 Open Employment and Financial Support	534
6 Sheltered Employment	537
7 Conclusions, Policy Recommendations and Research Agenda	539
18. Immigrant Labour Integration Gudrun Biffel	551
1 Migration Systems and Their Impact	553
2 Summary of the Main Policy Responses to Immigration	555
3 Review of Evaluation Studies on the Social and Economic Impacts of Migration and Migration Policies	558
4 Illegality	561
5 Conclusions Regarding Future Research and a Common European Policy on Migration	562
19. Labour Adjustments through Part-time Work Jacqueline O'Reilly	566
1 Theoretical Debates on Coordination Goals to Encourage Part-time Work	566
2 Policies Affecting the Behaviour of Agents in the Target Areas	572
3 Evaluating the Impact of Policy: Methodological and Substantive Results	579
4 Policy Instruments to Improve the Functioning of Labour Markets	588
5 Future Evaluation of Part-time Work	589

20.	Employment Stabilization through Short-time Work	594
	Hugh Mosley and Thomas Kruppe
1	Goals of Short-time Work and Rationale for Public Intervention	594
2	Short-time Work Schemes	596
3	Functional Equivalents	600
4	Evaluating Short-time Work Schemes	603
5	Programme Uptake: Levels, Patterns, Trends	604
6	Labour Market Impact	610
7	Benefits and Costs of Short-time Work	617
8	Conclusions	619
21.	Legal Regulation and Flexibility of Employment Contracts	623
	Ralf Rogowski and Klaus Schömann
1	Legal and Socioeconomic Evaluation of Deregulation	623
2	Assessment of Policies and Evaluations of Fixed-term Contracts	628
3	Conclusions	646
22.	Employment Security and Dismissal Protection	652
	Christoph F. Büchtemann and Ulrich Walwei
1	Theoretical Discussion	654
2	Contrasting Policy Regimes	665
3	Evaluation Approaches	672
4	Summary and Perspectives for Future Research	687
PART III: EVALUATING INSTITUTIONAL FRAMEWORKS OF LABOUR MARKET POLICY
23.	Explaining State Intervention to Prevent Unemployment: The Impact of Institutions on Active Labour Market Policy Expenditures in 18 Countries	697
	Thomas Janoski
1	Explanations of Active Labour Market Policy (ALMP)	698
2	Strands of Institutional Theory	699
3	An Institutional Model Explaining Active Labour Market Policy	701
4	Measuring Active Labour Market Policy and Institutions	705
5	Measuring Institutions over Time	709

6	Explaining Active Labour Market Policy	713
7	Conclusion	717
24.	The Impact of Labour Market Policy on Wages, Employment and Labour Market Mismatch Lutz Bellmann and Richard Jackman	725
1	Theoretical Considerations	726
2	Empirical Results	732
3	Conclusions	743
25.	New Public Management of Further Training Günther Schmid	747
1	Policy Regimes and Responsiveness	749
2	Implementation Regimes and Organizational Efficiency	756
3	Incentive Regimes and Programme Acceptance	765
4	The Labour Market Success of Further Training Policy	770
5	Discussion	774
6	Conclusion	786
26.	The Importance of Wage-bargaining Institutions for Employment Performance Eileen Appelbaum and Ronald Schettkat	791
1	Wage Bargaining and Economic Performance: Theoretical Issues	793
2	Corporatism and Wage Bargaining: Measurement Issues	796
3	Bargaining Institutions and Wage Behaviour	801
4	Unemployment and Employment Trends	804
5	Concluding Summary	806
27.	Tax Regimes and Labour Market Performance Siv Gustafsson	811
1	Tax Regimes According to Source of Income	813
2	Income Tax Regimes	817
3	Tax Harmonization in the European Union	819
4	The Deadweight Loss or Excess Burden	821
5	Work Incentives and Labour Supply	825
6	Taxes and Labour Demand	833
7	Concluding Comments	837

PART IV: EVALUATING POLICY TARGETS AT THE EUROPEAN LEVEL

28.	The European Social Fund: A Strategy for Generic Evaluation Robert M. Lindley	843
1	The Evolution of the European Social Fund	844
2	Evaluation of Labour Market Programmes	848
3	Implications for Monitoring and Evaluation of the ESF	855
4	Project Indicators—A Generic Perspective	860
5	Conclusions	865
29.	European Regulation of Social Standards: Social Security, Working Time, Workplace Participation, Occupational Health and Safety Jacqueline O'Reilly, Bernd Reissert and Volker Eichener	868
1	Workplace Participation	870
2	Working Time	875
3	Occupational Health and Safety	880
4	Social Security	886
5	Explanations for the Differing Success in Creating Labour Standards	891
30.	Monitoring of Labour Market Policy in EU Member States Peter Auer and Thomas Kruppe	899
1	What is Monitoring?	900
2	Why the Monitoring of LMP Is Becoming Important Today	901
3	Functions of a Monitoring System	906
4	The Reality of Monitoring	910
5	Conclusion	919
	List of Acronyms and Technical Terms	923
	Index	927