CONTENTS

PREFACE

1

Introduction: Conceptualizing Civil Service Systems

Hans A. G. M. Bekke, James L. Perry, and Theo A. J. Toonen

PART 1: THEORY AND DATA

2

Theory and Methodology

B. Guy Peters

3

Data Requirements and Availability

Eugene B. McGregor Jr. and Paul Solano

PART 2: HISTORY AND STRUCTURE

4

The Evolution of Civil Service Systems

Jos C. N. Raadschelders and Mark R. Rutgers

5

Internal Labor Markets

Lois Recascino Wise

6

Civil Servants and Representativeness

Frits M. van der Meer and Renk L. J. Roborgh

PART 3: CONTEXT

7

Politicalization as a Civil Service Dilemma

William P. Hojnacki
8
Social Control of Civil Service Systems
Michael Hill and Desi Gillespie

9
Public Opinion toward the Civil Service
Hal G. Rainey

PART 4: CONFIGURATIONS

10
Configurations of Civil Service Systems
Ferrel Heady

11
Analyzing Fields of Change: Civil Service Systems in Developing Countries
E. Philip Morgan

PART 5: CHANGE AND TRANSFORMATION

12
The Reform Agenda for National Civil Service Systems: External Stress and Internal Strains
Patricia W. Ingraham

13
Exploring Variations in Public Management Reform of the 1980s
Christopher Hood

14
The Diffusion of Civil Service Reform
John Halligan

15
Conclusion: Assessment of Progress and a Research Agenda
Hans A. G. M. Bekke, James L. Perry, and Theo A. J. Toonen

CONTRIBUTORS
INDEX