

Contents

Preface	xiii
The Author	xix

Part One: Understanding Dispute Resolution and Mediation

1. Approaches to Managing and Resolving Conflict	3
The Singson-Whittamore Dispute • Conflict Management and Resolution Approaches • The Mediation Process
2. How Mediation Works	41
Variations in Mediator Roles and Procedures • Variations in Mediator Directiveness and Focus • The Approach to Describing the Mediation Process • Mediation Activities: Moves and Interventions • Hypothesis Building and Mediation Interventions • The Stages of Mediation • Variables That Influence Mediation Strategies and Activities

Part Two: Laying the Groundwork for Effective Mediation

3. Managing Initial Contacts with the Disputing Parties	81
Tasks of the Mediator in the Entry Stage • Implementation of Entry
4. Selecting a Strategy to Guide Mediation	98
The Mediator-Disputant Relationship and Decision Making • The Approach and Arena Decision
5. Collecting and Analyzing Background Information	114
Framework for Analysis • Data Collection Methods • Data Collector • Data Collection Strategy • Interviewing Approach • Interview Questions and the Listening Process • Conflict Analysis • Presentation of Data and Analysis to Disputing Parties

6.	Designing a Detailed Plan for Mediation	141
	Participants in Negotiations • Location of Negotiations • Physical Arrangement of the Setting • Negotiation Procedures • Issues, Interests, and Settlement Options • Psychological Conditions of the Parties • Ground Rules and Behavioral Guidelines • Plan for First Joint Negotiations • Education of Parties • Possible Deadlocks
7.	Building Trust and Cooperation	161
	Strong Emotions • Misperceptions and Stereotypes • Legitimacy Problems • Lack of Trust • Poor Communication

Part Three: Conducting Productive Mediations

8.	Beginning the Mediation Session	193
	Opening Statement by Mediator • Opening Statements by Parties • Facilitation of Communication and Information Exchange • Creation of a Positive Emotional Climate • Cultural Variations • Transition to the Next Stage
9.	Defining Issues and Setting an Agenda	213
	Topic Areas and Issues • Identifying and Framing Issues • Variables in Framing and Reframing Issues • Determining an Agenda • Procedural Assistance from the Mediator • Cultural Variations
10.	Uncovering Hidden Interests of the Disputing Parties	231
	Difficulties in Identifying Issues • Procedures for Identifying Interests • Positive Attitudes Toward Interest Exploration • Indirect Procedures for Discovering Interests • Direct Procedures for Discovering Interests • Positions, Interests, and Bluffs • Interest Identification, Acceptance, and Agreement • Framing Joint Problem Statements in Terms of Interests
11.	Generating Options for Settlement	244
	Development of an Awareness of the Need for Options • Detachment of Parties from Unacceptable Positions • Strategies for Option Generation • General Procedures for Generating Options • Specific Option Generation Procedures • Forums for Option Generation • Types of Settlement Options • Option Generation in the Whittamore-Singson Case • Cultural Variations in Option Generation

Part Four: Reaching a Settlement

12.	Assessing Options for Settlement The Settlement Range • Recognition of the Settlement Range • Option Evaluation in the Whittamore-Singson Case • Culture and the Assessment of Settlement Options	269
13.	Conducting Final Bargaining Incremental Convergence • Leap to Agreement • Formulas and Agreements in Principle • Procedural Means of Reaching Substantive Decisions • Deadlines • Mediators and Deadline Management • Culture, Time, and Deadlines	280
14.	Achieving Formal Agreement or Settlement Implementing the Agreement • Criteria for Compliance and Implementation Steps • Monitoring the Performance of Agreements • Culture and Implementation • Formalizing Settlement	301
15.	Strategies for Dealing with Special Situations Caucuses • Mediator Power and Influence • Power Balance Between Parties • Multiperson Negotiation Teams • Teams with Constituents	318
16.	Toward an Excellent Practice of Mediation Associations and Conferences • Codes of Ethics and Standards of Practice • Training, Education, and Professional Development • Promoting the Field and Ensuring Competence and Quality	348
	Conclusion: Challenges for the Growth and Development of Mediation	373
	Resource A. Professional Practice Guidelines: The Society of Professionals in Dispute Resolution (SPIDR) Ethical Standards of Professional Responsibility	379
	Resource B. Mediation Services Agreement: Sample Waiver and Consent Form	385
	Resource C. Settlement Documentation Form: Sample Memorandum of Understanding	387
	Resource D. List of Professional Associations	389

References	397
Name Index	419
Subject Index	425