

Table of Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
List of Abbreviations	ix
Detailed Table of Contents	xv
PART ONE: PRELIMINARIES	1
CHAPTER 1 — INTRODUCTION	3
CHAPTER 2 — EMU PROVISIONS: A GENERAL INTRODUCTION	37
PART TWO: INTERNAL ASPECTS	149
CHAPTER 3 — OBJECTIVES AND TASKS, TO BE PURSUED IN INDEPENDENCE	151
CHAPTER 4 — MONETARY POLICY, PAYMENT SYSTEMS OVERSIGHT AND THEIR INSTRUMENTS	223
CHAPTER 5 — BANKING SUPERVISION AND ITS INSTRUMENTS	319
PART THREE: EXTERNAL ASPECTS	365
CHAPTER 6 — EXTERNAL POLICIES OF EMU	367
CHAPTER 7 — EXCHANGE RATE ARRANGEMENT WITHIN THE COMMUNITY	455
PART FOUR: FINDINGS	485
CHAPTER 8 — CONCLUSIONS	487
Bibliography	521
Table and Index of Cases in chronological order	539
Table of Cases in alphabetical order	543
Index	545
Summary	571
Samenvatting	581
Resumé	593
Zusammenfassung	605
Resumen	617
Sintesi	629

Detailed Table of Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
List of Abbreviations	ix
Table of Contents	xiii
PART ONE: PRELIMINARIES	1
CHAPTER 1 – INTRODUCTION	3
I. Introduction to this book	3
1. What this book is about	3
a) Subject matter	3
b) Method of analysis	5
2. Structure of this book	6
a) History and background	6
b) Objectives, tasks and instruments	7
c) External aspects	7
d) Conclusions	7
3. Limitations of the analysis	7
4. Terms used in this book	8
II. A brief history of the concept of economic and monetary union	10
1. Outline	10
2. «Bretton Woods» as the monetary order for the Community	10
3. Emergence of the idea of economic and monetary union	12
4. The Werner Report	15
a) Realization of dangers to the common market	15
b) Decision to move to economic and monetary union	15
c) Economic policy coordination	16
d) Monetary policy coordination	17
5. «Snake» and EMCF	17
a) The «snake»	17
b) The European Monetary Cooperation Fund	19

6. The European Monetary System	20
a) Outline	20
b) Elements	20
General	20
The Exchange Rate Mechanism	21
The ECU	21
Credit mechanisms and coordination procedures	24
c) Legal instruments	24
d) Further development of the EMS	26
7. The Single European Act	27
8. Delors Committee Report	28
9. Parallel negotiations on EMU and «EPU»	29
10. Documents and discussions at the IGCs	30
11. Maastricht Treaty on European Union	31
a) Structure	31
b) Ratification	33
 Scheme A : Provisions on Economic and Monetary Union in the EC Treaty	 35
 CHAPTER 2 – EMU PROVISIONS: A GENERAL INTRODUCTION	 37
I. Introduction	37
II. Economic and monetary union	38
1. The Delors Committee Report	38
a) The concept of «EMU» as understood by the Delors Committee Report	38
b) The three stages of EMU in the Delors Committee Report	38
2. EMU as outlined in the Maastricht Treaty	40
a) The three elements of EMU as agreed in Maastricht	40
b) The three stages of EMU as agreed in Maastricht	41
c) Stage 1	41
General	41
Completion of the internal market	42
Economic union	42
Monetary union	43
d) Stage 2	45
General	45
Completion of the internal market	45
Economic union	46
Monetary union	47
— The European Monetary Institute	47
— Other aspects of monetary union in Stage 2	51
e) Stage 3	52
General	52
The Economic and Financial Committee	53
f) Legal assessment of the three elements of EMU	54

General	54
The internal market component	54
The economic union component	55
The monetary union component	56
Constitutional balance	57
III. Freedom to effect payments and capital transfers	57
1. Completion of the internal market	57
2. Previous provisions	58
3. Treaty provisions with direct effect	59
4. Exceptions to and qualifications of the complete liberalization	60
a) General	60
b) Exceptions to the free movement of capital with third countries	61
Pre-existing exceptions on capital flows with third countries	61
Community measures on capital flows with third countries	61
Temporary measures restricting capital flows with third countries	62
c) Exceptions to the freedom of capital movements and payments in respect of third countries: embargoes	62
d) Qualification of the freedom of financial transfers	63
IV. Economic union	64
1. Introduction	64
a) The need for improved provisions	64
b) New wording after «Maastricht»	65
2. Fundamental provisions	66
a) Definition of economic union	66
b) Requirement to contribute to Community objectives	67
c) Obligation of coordination of economic policies	68
3. Broad economic guidelines and multilateral surveillance	69
a) Monitoring of economic policies within a common framework	69
b) Broad economic guidelines	69
General aspects	70
Legal status	71
Quantitative policy prescriptions?	71
Scope	71
Procedure for adoption	72
c) Multilateral surveillance	72
Commission and Council monitoring	73
Recommendations	74
Convergence programmes	74
Procedural matters	74
4. Prohibitions	74
a) Introduction	75
b) No monetary financing of Governments	75
c) No privileged access for Governments	77
d) No 'bail-out' of Governments	77
5. Excessive deficit procedure	78

a) The norms	78
Introduction	78
Objective norms and evaluative judgment	78
Reference criteria and 'gross errors'	78
Elements of assessment	79
Excessive Deficit Protocol	79
b) Monitoring, assessment and sanctions	80
From Commission report to Council recommendations	80
Further steps in Stage 3: sanctions	81
Voting	82
6. Community policy measures	83
a) Binding Community measures	83
b) Financial assistance	83
7. A «stability pact»?	84
a) Introduction	84
b) Elements accepted	85
c) Legal issues	85
d) Prospects	86
General contours of the «stability pact»	86
Stability programmes and surveillance of national budgets	86
Speeding up and narrowing down the excessive deficit procedure	88
Legal assessment of the proposals	89
V. Monetary union	90
1. Introduction	90
a) Delors Committee Report	90
b) Maastricht Treaty on European Union	91
c) Further discussion of monetary union	92
2. The European System of Central Banks	92
a) Structure of the System	92
Status	92
Governance ?	94
b) Decision-making bodies	95
Governing Council	95
Executive Board	96
General Council	97
The President	99
c) Voting	99
General	99
Voting in the Governing Council	99
Voting in the Executive Board	101
Voting in the General Council	102
d) Regulatory power	102
e) Judicial review	106
f) Professional secrecy	110
g) Division of responsibilities between ECB and NCBs	111
h) Financial provisions	112

	112
General	112
Key for each NCB	113
Allocation of monetary income	114
Transfer of foreign reserve assets	114
Annual accounts	115
i) Simplified amendment procedure	115
j) Secondary legislation	115
k) Seat	116
VI. Transition to Stage 3	116
1. General	116
2. Common elements	117
3. Decision-making procedure on early transition	117
a) Procedure	118
b) Timing of the transition to Stage 3	119
4. Decision-making procedure for transition on 1 January 1999	119
a) Transition on 1 January 1999 planned	119
b) Procedure	120
c) Semi-automatic nature of the transition	120
d) Qualifications of an implied decision to postpone currency union	121
5. Convergence criteria	121
a) General	121
b) Legislative compatibility	123
c) Price stability	124
d) No excessive deficit	124
e) Participation in the ERM	124
Background to this criterion	125
Meaning of 'observance of normal fluctuation margins'	126
f) Interest rate convergence	127
g) Amending the convergence criteria	128
6. Further decisions concerning the start of Stage 3	128
a) General	128
b) Establishment of the ESCB and the ECB	129
c) Measures for the rapid introduction of the single currency	129
Fixing of exchange rates	129
Procedure	129
Other measures for the rapid introduction of the euro	130
Continuity of contracts	131
Proposed regulations to be adopted	132
Scenario for the change-over to the single currency	133
7. No veto on the transition to the single currency	134
VII. Position of derogation States, Denmark and the United Kingdom	134
1. States with a derogation	134
a) General	135
b) Inapplicability of EMU provisions	135
c) Exclusion from voting	135

d) Restricted participation in the ESCB	136
e) Obligation in respect of exchange rates	136
f) Position of the derogation States in EMU policy decisions	136
g) Decisions on admittance to the currency union	136
2. States with an opt-out	137
a) General	137
b) Denmark	137
c) United Kingdom	138
Scheme B: Applicability of the EMU provisions of the EC Treaty	140
Scheme C: Structure of the European System of Central Banks	145
Scheme D: Procedures for entering Stage 3 of EMU	146
Scheme E: Madrid scenario for the introduction of the euro	147
PART TWO: INTERNAL ASPECTS	149
CHAPTER 3 – OBJECTIVES AND TASKS, TO BE PURSUED IN INDEPENDENCE	151
I. Introduction	151
II. Independence	152
① Theoretical background	152
a) Economic and legal writing	152
b) Independence within the governmental function	154
c) Elements of independence	155
Institutional independence	155
Personal independence	156
Functional independence	157
Financial independence	157
Further elements of independence	157
2. Political necessity	159
3. Principle of independence	161
4. Elements of independence of the ECB	162
a) Institutional independence	162
b) Personal independence	162
General	162
Executive Board	162
NCB Governors	165
Other members of the governing bodies of the NCBs	166
Personnel	167
c) Functional independence	167
d) Financial independence	167
Own finances	167
Scrutiny by the Court of Auditors	168
Auditing and reporting	168
e) Amendment of the ECB charter	168

5.	Dialogue and democratic accountability	169
	a) General	169
	b) Inter-institutional cooperation and reporting	170
	c) Mutual participation in meetings	170
	General	170
	Participation of the Ecofin Council President and a member of the Commission in ECB meetings	170
	Participation of the ECB President in Ecofin Council meetings	173
	d) Appearance before the European Parliament	174
	e) Reporting	174
6.	Conclusions concerning independence and accountability	176
III.	Objectives and basic tasks	178
1.	Introduction	178
2.	Place and structure of Article 105 and corresponding provisions	178
	a) Place of Article 105 in the Treaty	178
	b) Structure of Article 105	179
	c) Corresponding provisions in the ESCB Statute	180
3.	Legislative history	180
	a) Provisions in the ESCB Statute on objectives and tasks	180
	b) Article 2: Objectives	180
	c) Article 3: Tasks	182
	d) Article 4: Advisory functions	183
4.	Objectives of the ESCB	184
	a) Price stability as the primary objective	184
	General	184
	Maintenance of price stability	184
	Internal price stability as the objective	184
	Acceptable level of inflation	185
	Checks on the ECB's auto-interpretation	186
	The pervasive influence of the overriding objective	187
	b) Support of general economic policies	187
	General	187
	Absence of a single Community economic policy	187
	Economic policies themselves bound by Community objectives	188
	Community economic policy measures	188
	Liberty of criticism of economic policies	189
	c) Reference to the Community's objectives	189
	d) Principle of an open market economy	190
	General	190
	Implications for ECB behaviour	191
	e) Reference to principles underlying Economic and Monetary Union	192
5.	Basic tasks	193
	a) Monetary policy	193
	General	193
	Phrasing of the task-setting provisions	193
	Community competence	193

Concept of 'monetary policy'	196
Free hand in formulating and implementing monetary policy	197
b) Conduct of foreign exchange operations	197
c) Official reserves	198
General	198
Full use of the official reserves	198
Distribution of foreign reserves in the ESCB	199
Ownership of official reserves	199
Scope of the ESCB's competences for official reserves	200
Governments' working balances	201
Concluding remark in respect of official reserves	202
d) Oversight of payment systems	202
IV. Other tasks	202
1. General	202
2. Issue of bank notes and coins	203
a) General	203
b) Legislative history of the provision	204
c) Authorization of the issue of bank notes	206
ECB authorization required	206
Meaning of 'issue'	206
d) Issue of bank notes	207
e) Legal tender status	207
General	207
Euro bank notes	208
Bank notes denominated in national currencies	208
f) Authorization of the issue of coins	209
Prior ECB authorization required	209
Further Community competences	209
3. Consultative functions	210
a) Rationale	210
b) Threefold consultative function	210
c) Consultation on draft legislation in general	211
Consultation on draft Community acts	211
Consultation on draft national legislation	213
Advice	213
4. Contribution to prudential supervision	213
5. ECB's own supervisory task	214
6. Statistical task	214
a) General	214
b) Place and structure of the provision	214
c) Legislative history of the provision	215
d) Link with other ESCB tasks	215
e) Emphasis on NCBs in the implementation of the statistical task	215
f) Position in respect of the Commission's statistical task	215
The statistical functions of Eurostat	215
Relevant statistical committees	216

Proposed regulation on Community action in the field of statistics	216
Coordination with Eurostat	216
g) Cooperation with other statistical authorities	217
Cooperation with the Commission	217
Cooperation with the authorities of the Member States	217
Cooperation with third countries and international organizations	217
— Cooperation with third countries	217
— Cooperation with international organizations	218
h) Secondary legislation for direct statistical data collection	218
Subject matter of secondary legislation	218
Economic operators subject to reporting requirements	218
— Credit and other financial institutions	218
— Other economic agents	218
— Limits to the imposition of statistical reporting requirements	219
Statistical secrecy	219
Enforcement	220
i) Harmonization of rules and practices	221
CHAPTER 4 – MONETARY POLICY, PAYMENT SYSTEMS OVERSIGHT AND THEIR INSTRUMENTS	223
I. Introduction	223
1. General	223
2. Central bank competences in the area of monetary policy	223
a) A brief look at recent history	224
b) Regulatory instruments of central banks	224
c) Open market operations and discount and lending practices	226
d) Difference between regulatory and market instruments	227
e) Sophisticated instruments	228
f) Declared central bank targets	229
g) Current mixture of instruments	229
3. Central bank instruments in respect of payment systems	229
a) Provision of clearing facilities	230
b) Regulatory instruments	231
c) No clear-cut instruments
II. Elements common to the ECB's monetary and payment instruments	231
1. Principle of attributed competences	232
2. Harmonized operational competences	232
3. Modern catalogue of competences	233
4. Simplified amendment procedure	233
5. Structure of Chapter IV	233
6. Meaning of the term 'credit institution'	233
a) Frequency of the term in the ESCB Statute	234
b) Question of interpretation	234
c) Views of the Committee of Governors	234

Reference to the First Banking Directive	234
Community banking legislation	234
Limited reference to the First Banking Directive	235
d) Arguments against a reference to secondary legislation	236
General	236
Different objectives of the legislation	237
Category difficult to delimitate	237
Possible amendment of the definition by Community institutions	238
e) Arguments in favour of a reference to secondary legislation	238
f) Author's preferred interpretation	239
g) Interpretation by the EMI: necessity of amendment	240
7. Legislative history	241
a) Amendments to the Draft Statute	241
b) Parallel provisions in the Treaty	242
8. Relationship between specific competences and grant of legal personality	242
9. «Remote access»	242
a) Introduction	242
b) The concept of «remote access»	243
c) «Remote access» in Stage 2	244
Internal market principles	244
Payment services	245
Trade in securities	247
Rights for central banks to restrict counterparties?	248
Conclusion	251
d) «Remote access» in Stage 3	251
Internal market legislation applies	251
Application of internal market rules to the ESCB	251
Judicial precedent for restrictions adopted by a Community body?	253
Organization of ESCB operations in conformity with the internal market	255
Incidence of the Investment Services Directive	256
Restriction of operations to banks within the same Member State?	256
Restriction of operations to banks within the monetary union?	257
Restriction of operations to banks within the Community?	258
«Remote access» to NCBs of States with a derogation and the UK?	260
III. Article 17: Accounts with the ECB and NCBs	260
1. Accounts for counterparties	260
a) Opening of accounts	260
b) Counterparties	262
2. Acceptance of collateral	263
IV. Article 18: Open market and credit operations	264
1. Main market instrument for monetary policy	264
a) Indirect regulation of money markets	264
b) Context of open market and credit operations	264
2. Transactions which the ECB and NCBs are competent to effect	265
a) Transactions in claims and marketable instruments	264

b) Issuance of central bank paper	265
c) Outright and repo transactions	267
d) Lending or borrowing	267
e) Currency denomination	267
f) Transactions in precious metals	268
g) Credit operations	268
h) Provision of liquidity	268
i) Lender-of-last-resort function	269
j) Non-application in States outside the currency union	271
3. Requirement of collateral	272
4. General principles	274
V. Article 19: Minimum reserves	275
1. Regulation of money supply through obligatory reserves	275
a) Obligatory nature of the monetary policy instrument	275
b) Market conformity and remuneration of reserves	275
c) Combined regulatory intervention by Ecofin Council and ECB	277
2. Regulatory power of the ECB	277
a) Calculation and determination of minimum reserves	277
b) Pecuniary and other sanctions in case of non-compliance	278
c) Subjects of the reserve requirements	278
Credit institutions	278
Third-country branches	279
Position of banks in States with a derogation and the United Kingdom	280
3. Framework for minimum reserves in secondary legislation	281
a) Subject matter of Ecofin Council Regulation	281
b) Procedure and application	283
VI. Article 20: Other instruments of monetary control	283
1. Fall-back provision	283
a) Applicability	283
b) Monetary control of a highly regulatory nature	284
c) Other methods not yet provided for	285
2. Implementation	285
a) Voting in the ECB Governing Council	285
b) Observance of open market principles	286
c) Secondary legislation	286
d) Application in the United Kingdom and derogation States	287
VII. Article 21: Operations with public entities	288
1. Structure of the provision	288
a) Relationship with public authorities	288
b) Prohibition - Competence - Principle	288
2. Prohibition of monetary financing	289
a) Parallel provision of Article 104	289
b) Legislative history of the prohibition	289
c) Rationale of the prohibition	290

d) Effect of the prohibition	291
Temporal effect	291
Monitoring of compliance	291
Nullity of operations contravening the prohibition?	292
e) Secondary legislation	293
Definitions	293
Exemptions	293
Special cases	295
3. Acting as fiscal agent	296
a) Traditional services	296
b) Observance of Community law	296
c) Additional proposed paragraphs not adopted	296
VIII. Article 22: Clearing and payment systems	297
1. Introduction	297
2. Place and structure of the provision	297
a) Powers in respect of payment systems	297
b) Regulatory powers and private-law competences	298
3. Reasons behind integration of payment systems	299
4. Minimum Common Features for domestic payment systems	299
5. Competences in respect of clearing and payment systems	301
a) Provision of facilities	301
General	301
TARGET System	301
Counterparties in payment systems	301
Payment systems with third countries	302
Applicability of the provision	302
b) Regulatory power of the ECB	304
No involvement of political institutions	304
Scope of the regulatory power	304
Difference with other powers of regulation	305
Regulation by NCBs	305
Enforcement measures	306
International context of the regulatory power	306
Applicability of the provision	306
IX. Article 23: External operations	307
1. Place of the provision in the external competences	307
a) Relationship with other provisions of the Statute	307
Relevance of Articles 17 and 18	307
Relevance of Article 6	308
Relevance of Article 3.1	308
b) Relationship with Treaty provisions	308
Relevance of Article 109	308
Relevance of Article 109 M	309
Relevance of Article 105	309
2. Legislative history	309

3.	Scope of the external operations	310
a)	Relations with third countries and international organizations	310
	Third-country central banks and financial institutions	310
	International organizations	310
b)	Purchase and sale of foreign exchange assets and precious metals	311
c)	Holding and managing foreign exchange assets and precious metals	312
d)	Conduct of all types of banking transactions	312
	Residual competences in respect of external operations	312
	Relevance of this competence at the internal level?	312
	Meaning of 'international organizations'	312
	Borrowing and lending	312
4.	Applicability of Article 23	313
X.	Article 24: Other operations	313
1.	Residual clause of competence	313
2.	Absence of a direct connection with the System's tasks	314
3.	Relevance of legal capacity resulting from legal personality	314
XI.	Evaluation of competences	314
1.	General	314
2.	Exhaustive enumeration of widely-drawn powers	314
3.	Possible requirement of amendment	315
4.	Market conformity	315
5.	Political involvement	315
6.	«Remote access»	316
CHAPTER 5 – BANKING SUPERVISION AND ITS INSTRUMENTS		319
I.	Prudential supervision	319
1.	Introduction	319
2.	Reasons underlying prudential supervision	319
3.	Brief history of prudential supervision	319
a)	Origins	319
b)	From moral suasion to a panoply of instruments	320
c)	Coordination among supervisors	321
d)	Standards based on international and European norms	321
e)	No assumption of liability by supervisory agencies	322
4.	Issues of banking supervision	322
a)	Necessity of banking supervision	322
b)	Scope of banking supervision	323
5.	Separation or combination of monetary and prudential functions	323
a)	On-going debate	323
b)	Conflict of interests	324
c)	Efficiency of decision-making and détournement de pouvoir	324
d)	Impact on independence and standing of the central bank	325
e)	Preference and practice	326

II. Prudential supervision in the EC Treaty	327
1. Internal market legislation	327
a) Treaty basis for harmonization	327
b) Concept of 'credit institution'	328
2. Home State control and mutual recognition	328
a) Home State competences	328
b) Exceptions for liquidity and monetary supervision	329
3. Supervisory cooperation	330
a) Multilateral and bilateral cooperation	330
Cooperation within the Community	330
International cooperation	331
b) Banking supervisory fora	331
Banking Advisory Committee	331
Groupe de Contact	333
Banking Supervisory Subcommittee	333
III. Legislative history	334
1. Introduction	334
2. Proposal by the Committee of Governors	335
3. Outcome of the Intergovernmental Conference	336
a) Intensive discussions on the ESCB's role in banking supervision	336
b) Comparison of adopted with proposed texts	337
IV. Interpretation of Articles 3.3 and 25.1	338
1. Scope of Articles 3.3 and 25.1	338
a) No role as 'competent authority'	338
b) Historical background	339
c) Textual arguments for a wider interpretation	339
d) Systematic arguments for a wider interpretation	340
Monetary policy-related task	340
Contribution of market knowledge to supervision	341
Additional systematic arguments	342
e) Author's interpretation	343
2. Use of instruments for supervisory task	343
a) Advice under Article 25.1	343
General remarks	343
Addressees of advice	343
Subject matter of advice	344
Meaning of 'credit institutions'	345
Meaning of 'scope and implementation'	345
Legal form of the advice	346
Prior consultation	346
Publication of advice	346
b) Advice under Article 4	347
c) Use of other instruments	348
Operations under Chapter IV of the Statute	348
Statistical functions	349

Participation in supervisory fora	349
d) International cooperation	349
3. Confidentiality restraints	350
4. Banking Supervisory Subcommittee	352
5. Applicability of Articles 3.3 and 25.1	352
a) States with a derogation	352
b) United Kingdom	353
c) General Council	353
V. Interpretation of Article 25.2	355
1. Parallel provision in the Treaty	355
2. Legislative history	355
3. Outcome of the Intergovernmental Conference	356
4. Procedure for activating the ECB's own supervisory task	357
a) Involvement of the Community's political institutions	357
b) Form of the empowering act	357
5. Scope of the ECB's own supervisory task	358
a) No overall supervision of all financial institutions	358
b) Operational tasks	358
c) Subjects of the ECB's own supervisory task	358
6. Applicability to States with a derogation and the United Kingdom	359
a) Applicability in the entire Community	359
b) Competences of the General Council	359
VI. Assessment of the supervisory functions of the ESCB	360
1. Involvement in prudential supervision	360
2. Coordinating role	361
3. Limitation of further financial market integration	361
4. Differences between «ins» and outs»	361
Scheme F: Applicability of supervision-related provisions of the EC Treaty and the ESCB Statute	363
PART THREE: EXTERNAL ASPECTS	365
CHAPTER 6 - EXTERNAL POLICIES OF EMU	367
I. Introduction	367
1. Focus of this chapter	367
2. Background to external competences in the area of EMU	367
3. External competences in EMU matters	368
4. Case law on external competences	369
a) Implied external competences	369
b) Exclusive nature of the external competences	370
c) Obligation to cooperate in case of concurrent powers	372
d) External competences in the area of the internal market	373

e) External competences in the area of the economic union	374
f) External competences in the area of the monetary union	375
II. Legislative history of Article 109	375
III. Place and structure of Article 109	376
1. Place of the provision	376
2. Structure of Article 109	377
a) Distinction between third currencies and Community currencies	377
b) Distinction between exchange rate agreements and floating	377
c) Procedural matters	378
d) External competences in cases other than exchange rate agreements	378
3. Relationship with other Treaty provisions	379
4. Relationship with Protocols and Declarations	380
a) General	380
b) Position of the Ecofin Council	380
c) Status of international agreements and respect for case law	380
d) Relations with third countries and overseas territories	381
Overview	381
Specific territories and third countries	382
Monetary cooperation with third countries in general	383
e) Incidence on the ECB	384
IV. Exchange rate arrangements in respect of third currencies	384
1. Derogation from Article 228	384
a) Usual procedure for concluding agreements	384
b) Procedure pursuant to Article 109	385
c) No ex ante opinion of the Court of Justice	385
2. Responsibility of the Ecofin Council	386
3. 'Formal' exchange rate agreements	386
a) Meaning of the word 'formal'	386
b) Status of a 'formal' exchange rate agreement	387
c) Distinction between conclusion of agreement and decisions thereunder	387
4. Procedure for conclusion of exchange rate agreements	387
a) Reference to paragraph 3	387
b) Parallel competences of the Commission and the ECB	388
c) Consultation of the ECB	388
«Tied» consultation requirement	388
Measure of agreement necessary	389
Decision-making at the ECB	391
d) Role of the Commission	391
e) Pre-eminence of price stability	392
f) Consultation of the European Parliament	392
g) Unanimity in the Council	393
5. Procedure for adopting, changing and abolishing 'central rates'	393
a) Scope of the procedure	393
b) The concept of 'central rate'	394

c) Adoption, adjustment, abandonment	395
d) Parallel competences of the Commission and the ECB	395
e) Consultation of the ECB	396
f) Pre-eminence of price stability	396
g) Consistency with international monetary stability	396
h) Qualified majority in the Council	396
i) Information of the European Parliament	397
V. Absence of exchange rate arrangements: general orientations	397
1. Applicability of Article 109 (2)	397
2. Freedom of action for the ECB	397
3. Framework formed by Council orientations	398
a) Nature of the general orientations	398
b) Legal form of the general orientations	400
c) Publication of the general orientations	400
4. Pre-eminence of price stability	401
5. Procedure for adoption of general orientations	401
a) Parallel competences of the Commission and the ECB	401
b) Qualified majority in the Council	402
VI. Procedure for deciding on agreements	402
1. Applicability of Article 109 (3)	402
2. Agreements concerning monetary and foreign exchange regime matters	403
3. Derogation from Article 228	403
4. Concept of 'Community'	403
5. Third countries or international organizations	403
6. Purpose of the arrangements	404
a) A single position for the Community	404
b) Consistency of external relations and economic policies	404
c) Involvement of States outside monetary union	406
7. Procedure for negotiation of arrangements	406
a) Recommendation from the Commission	406
b) Consultation of the ECB	407
c) Decision by qualified majority in the Council	407
d) Association of the Commission	407
8. Binding nature of the agreements	408
VII. External competences in cases other than agreements	409
1. Relevant provisions	409
a) General	409
b) Apparent inconsistencies	409
2. Different approaches	410
a) General	410
b) Article 109 (4) not including the Member States?	410
«Minimalist» approach	410
Relevance of additional Treaty provisions	411
c) Article 109 (4) as a prevailing provision?	412

Reference to 'Community' including 'ESCB'?	412
Affirmative answer	412
No implied impingement of ESCB's freedom to act	412
«Tied» decisions	412
Free decisions	413
d) Article 109 (4) as a supplementary provision?	414
e) Author's preferred interpretation	414
3. Division of competences	415
a) Issues of particular relevance to Economic and Monetary Union	415
b) Fundamental distinction: economic versus monetary union	415
4. Procedure for decision-making	415
a) Proposal from the Commission	415
b) Consultation of the ECB	415
c) Decision-making in the Council	416
Representation	416
Position	416
d) Position of States with a derogation and the United Kingdom	416
5. Competence of the Member States	417
a) Significance of paragraph 5	417
b) Meaning of Declaration (No. 10)	418
c) Establishment of competences on a case-by-case basis	418
d) Representation of a common standpoint in international bodies	418
e) Discontinuation of separate action by Member States	419
Externally	419
Internally	419
VIII. The ESCB: external representation and international cooperation	420
1. Introduction	420
2. Place and structure of the provision	420
a) Final provision of the chapter on Objectives and tasks	420
b) Structure of Article 6	420
c) Relationship with other provisions	421
Relationship with Article 109 (4) EC Treaty	421
Relationship with Article 23 ESCB Statute	421
3. Legislative history of Article 6	421
4. International representation of the System	421
a) Decision-making by the Governing Council of the ECB	421
b) Participation in international institutions	422
International monetary institutions	422
Bank for International Settlements	422
International Monetary Fund	425
Informal bodies	425
— G-10 cooperation	425
— G-7 cooperation	426
Non-monetary institutions in the ESCB's fields of competence	426
5. Applicability of the provision	428
a) In respect of States with a derogation	428

b) In respect of the United Kingdom	428
IX. Relations with the International Monetary Fund	429
1. Introduction	429
2. Obligations resulting from IMF membership	429
a) Objectives of the IMF	429
b) Obligations under the IMF's Articles of Agreement	429
In respect of exchange rate arrangements	429
In respect of current payments	430
In respect of collection of statistical information	431
c) Assumption of obligations by the Community	431
In respect of exchange rate arrangements	431
In respect of current payments	433
In respect of collection of statistical information	434
3. Operations with the IMF	434
a) General	434
b) Appointment of the ECB as the Community's agent at the IMF	434
c) Provision of freely convertible currency	435
A member's obligation to buy balances of its own currency	435
A member's obligation to provide its own currency	435
d) Use of the Fund's resources	436
e) SDR-related functions	437
4. Other IMF activities	438
a) Crisis management	438
b) Support mechanisms not for the IMF's account	439
c) Technical assistance	439
5. Structure and management of the IMF	439
6. Common position of the Community in the IMF	440
a) IMF membership	440
b) Common approach pursuant to case law	440
c) Forms of joint action in respect of IMF decision-making	441
d) Decision-making within the Community	441
7. Accession of the Community to IMF membership	441
a) Introduction	441
b) Competence to become a member of an international organization	442
c) Questions concerning IMF membership of the Community	442
The Community as a 'country' in terms of the IMF's Articles of Agreement	442
Reshuffle of quotas	444
Discussion of economic policies	444
Conclusion	445
d) Continued membership of the Member States?	445
Possibilities of continued membership	445
Overseas territories	445
Reserves of the Member States	446
Economic policy discussions and systemic crisis management	448
Incidence of Article 109 (5)	449

Equal-treatment argument?	449
e) Internal Community competences for IMF membership	449
f) Necessity of amending the IMF's Articles of Agreement	450
8. The situation in respect of States with a derogation and the United Kingdom	452
 CHAPTER 7– EXCHANGE RATE ARRANGEMENT WITHIN THE COMMUNITY	 455
I. Introduction	455
II. Place and history of Article 109 M	457
1. Temporary constraint in respect of exchange rate policy	457
2. Combination of Articles 107 and 102 A EEC Treaty	457
3. Absence of the escape clause of Article 107 (2) EEC Treaty	458
a) Simple deletion of the escape clause	458
b) Exchange rate turbulence and claims for countermeasures	459
III. Applicability and application	461
1. Applicability	461
a) In Stages 1 and 2 of EMU	461
b) In Stage 3 of EMU	461
To States with a derogation	461
To States without a derogation?	462
To the Community?	462
To the United Kingdom	463
2. Application	463
a) Coordination in the General Council of the ECB	463
b) Ecofin Council, Commission and Ecofin Committee	464
IV. Exchange Rate Mechanism between the euro and other Community currencies	465
1. Requirement that an ERM exists	465
2. Requirement of participation in the ERM	465
3. Competences under the EC Treaty	466
a) Absence of clear authority	466
b) Continuation of informal arrangements	466
Possible explanations for the absence of clear authority	466
No room for informal arrangements or mixed competences	467
No room for involvement of the European Council	467
c) Exclusive competence of the ECB?	469
General	469
Article 109 not applicable	469
ERM competences shared between ECB and «outside» States?	470
Counterarguments	470
Importance of ECB independence in framing the ERM	470
d) Application of Article 109 by analogy?	470
Copying of external division of competences	470
International law applied?	471

Unacceptable method of interpretation	471
Further counterarguments	471
e) Application of Article 235?	472
General	472
Conditions for invoking Article 235	472
Procedure	473
Counterarguments	473
4. A sui generis solution?	475
a) Appreciation of the various possibilities	475
b) Elements to be observed in any solution	476
5. The emerging features of the ERM in Stage 3	478
a) EMI thinking on the institutional arrangements	478
General	478
Continuing the present-day institutional framework	478
Common features and an element of bilateralism	479
Decision-making	479
Initiating realignments and suspension of interventions	479
b) An alternative construction	480
Involvement of Community institutions and bodies	480
The Ecofin Council	480
The Governing Council of the ECB	482
The General Council of the ECB	482
The Commission	482
Compatibility with the Treaty	483
c) Necessity of compliance with the Treaty	483
PART FOUR: FINDINGS	485
CHAPTER 8 - CONCLUSIONS	487
I. Introduction	487
II. Problems of interpretation	487
1. Community competence in area of monetary union	487
2. Naming of the single currency	490
3. Meaning of the term 'credit institution'	492
4. Requirement of collateral	493
5. Market conformity	493
6. Regulatory power and enforcement	494
a) Consistency issues	494
b) Sanctions - an overview	494
c) Different wording	495
Apparent lacunae	495
Extent of enforcement powers	495
Sanctions in respect of minimum reserve requirements	496
Sanctions in respect of payment systems, prudential supervision and

other methods of monetary control	496
Concluding remarks	497
d) Two bases for the ECB's regulatory power	497
7. Powers in the area of prudential supervision	498
8. Secrecy and confidentiality regime	499
9. «Remote access»	499
III. Compatibility with democracy and transparency	500
1. Independence and accountability	500
2. Involvement of the European Parliament in legislation	501
3. Judicial review	501
IV. Structural issues	502
1. Unbalanced structure of economic and monetary union	502
2. Two-speed monetary union	504
a) Derogations and opt-outs	504
b) Difficulties of management	504
For the ESCB	504
For the Ecofin Council	505
For the Commission	508
For the European Parliament	509
For the Court of Justice	510
For the Court of Auditors	512
c) Operation of an Exchange Rate Mechanism	512
d) The exclusion of London as a financial centre	513
e) Accession of new Member States	514
V. Concluding remarks	514
1. Original objective: one Community, one currency	514
2. Transparency	515
3. Anomie or integration?	515
4. Political involvement and intergovernmental impulse	516
5. Alternative structure	516
a) Clear and transparent structures required	516
b) A true political union	517
c) Restructuring the European enterprise	517
Bibliography	521
Table and Index of Cases in chronological order	539
Table of Cases in alphabetical order	543
Index	545
Summary	571
Samenvatting	581
Resumé	593
Zusammenfassung	605
Resumen	617
Sintesi	629