

Contents

List of figures	vii
List of contributors	viii
Acknowledgments	xiii
Preface	xiv
Part 1: Introduction	1
1. A new agenda for youth research John Bynner, Lynne Chisholm and Andy Furlong	3
Part 2: The shaping of trajectories and biographies	15
2. Metaphors of youth transitions: niches, pathways, trajectories or navigations Karen Evans and Andy Furlong	17
3. Participation and identification in risk societies: European perspectives Ulrike Nagel and Claire Wallace	42
4. Structure and agency: the new youth research agenda Ken Roberts	56
Part 3: Vulnerable groups: excluded and included youth, polarisation and marginalisation	67
5. Vulnerable youth and processes of social exclusion: a theoretical framework, a review of recent research and suggestions for a future research agenda Bob Coles	69

6.	Conceptualising youth: transitions, risk and the public and the private Pat Allatt	89
7.	Sensibilities and occlusions: vulnerable youth between social change and cultural context Lynne Chisholm	103
Part 4: The social construction of identity		119
8.	Rethinking youth identities: modernist and postmodernist frameworks Ali Rattansi and Ann Phoenix	121
9.	Rethinking youth identities: new challenges Manuela du Bois-Reymond	151
10.	Youth research and identities: same as it ever was ? Christine Griffin	157
Part 5: Perspectives on citizenship and participation		169
11.	Participation and citizenship: a new agenda for youth politics research? Elizabeth Frazer and Nicholas Emler	171
12.	Youth work and citizenship Howard Williamson	196
13.	Citizenship education Ken Fogelman	214
14.	Perspectives on social exclusion, citizenship and youth Helena Helve	228
15.	The challenge of citizenship for youth study John Bynner	234
Part 6: Theory and the new agenda		243
16.	Youth and activity theory Sven Mørch	245
17.	Globalisation, social exclusion and youth Phillip Brown	262

List of Figures

Figure 2.1	Transitions and destinations	22
Figure 2.2	Transitional models	34
Figure 16.1	Activity theory I	247
Figure 16.2	Activity theory II	248
Figure 16.3	Activity theory III	248
Figure 16.4	Historical perspectives on the construction of youth	249
Figure 16.5	A model of youth and class	250
Figure 16.6	Contemporary youth	251
Figure 16.7	Educational youth prolongation	252
Figure 16.8	Youth with short education and without future	253
Figure 16.9	The peer group youth	253
Figure 16.10	Container youth development	254
Figure 16.11	The modern youth challenge	256
Figure 16.12	Family support in youth	257
Figure 17.1	Alternative models of national economic development	266