

Contents

Contents	3
Foreword	7
Martin Hutsebaut	9
Introductory chapter
I. WORK AND SOCIAL PROTECTION IN THE AGE OF FLEXIBILITY
Richard B. Freeman
Labour, capital, and social protection: preparing for the 21st century	35
Michel Rocard
The future of work in Europe and the implications for social protection	45
Maria Jepsen, Danièle Meulders, Olivier Plasman and Philippe Vanhuynegem
Social and family changes and the redress of unequal opportunities	55
Michael Cichon
Can Europe afford the future financing of the welfare states?	79
II. HOW ARE SOCIAL PROTECTION SYSTEMS COPING WITH CHANGE? A COMPARATIVE APPROACH
A. PENSION SYSTEMS
Martin Hutsebaut
Pension systems	111
Diether Döring
Types of old age pension systems in the European Union and aspects of socio-economic change	119

Einar Overbye
Retirement from the labour force - a multiple choice exercise?
Pre-retirement in the Nordic countries in a European context	139
Linda Luckhaus and Sue Ward
Equal pension rights for men and women: a realistic perspective?	159
Lucy apRoberts and Pierre Concialdi
Future financing of retirement pensions: what resources will be available to finance what benefits?	183
Franz Terwey
Conclusions of the Rapporteur	207
B. UNEMPLOYMENT BENEFIT SYSTEMS
Alessandra Bosco
Unemployment benefit systems	211
Bernd Reissert
How are unemployment benefit systems coping with the changes occurring in the labour markets? A comparative study	229
Jacques Freyssinet
Unemployment compensation and labour markets: a disincentive to work?	241
Adrian Sinfield
Blaming the benefit : the costs of the distinction between active and passive programmes	261
Damian Grimshaw and Jill Rubery
Unemployment protection of the atypical: the neglected issue	289
Richard Exell
Conclusions of the Rapporteur	311

C. HEALTH CARE SYSTEMS

Alessandra Bosco Health care systems	317
Gian Guido Balandi Health care systems: a comparative approach	327
Jef van Langendonck Health care between efficiency and quality	341
Henri Poizat Competition and solidarity in health care systems: the question of European regulation	359
Jozef Pacolet Conclusions of the Rapporteur	371

III. THE EUROPEAN DIMENSION OF SOCIAL PROTECTION AND FUTURE PERSPECTIVES

Alessandra Bosco The European dimension of social protection and future perspectives	381
Jos Berghman Social protection in the European Union	401
Danny Pieters Social security and taxation: a matter of co-ordination?	405
Simon Deakin Social protection: a race to the bottom, or minimum standards?	417
Norman Birnbaum, Patrick Venturini, Thérèse de Liedekerke, Béatrice Hertogs Panel: The future of social protection in Europe: competition or solidarity?	435
Authors	449