CHAPTER 1
Introduction 1
Judith Piggott and Mark Cook

CHAPTER 2
The changing nature of international business 5
Judith Piggott and Mark Cook

Introduction 5
Growth of large firms 5
Deregulation and the internationalisation process 6
Impact of technology 7
Types of growth 8
Joint ventures 10
Case study: Joint ventures in the commercial vehicles market 11
Strategic alliances 13
Merger and acquisition in Europe 13
The shrinking boundaries of the firm 17
Case study: Cable & Wireless divestment strategies 18
Europe’s best? 20
   Banking (commercial) 22
   Chemicals and pharmaceuticals 22
   Electronics, electrical equipment 24
   Food and drug stores and beverages 24
   Insurance 24
   Metals 25
   The motor vehicle sector 25
   Telecommunications 25
CHAPTER 3
The environment of international business 29

Jon Stephens
Introduction 29
Business in Europe and the world 29
Local companies 30
National companies 30
European companies 31
Multinational companies 31
Global companies 31
Analysing the business environment 32
Case study: The telecommunications industry 37
Key issues in the business environment 39
Government policies 39
Company taxation 39
Company law 40
Regional policies 40
Infrastructure 41
Human resource factors 42
Cultural differences 43
The impact of the EU on the business environment 45
Conclusion 47
Questions for discussion 47
Main reading 48
Additional reading 48

CHAPTER 4
International trade 49

Judith Piggott
Introduction 49
Mercantilism 49
Absolute advantage 50
Comparative advantage 51
An empirical study of comparative advantage 53
Criticisms of the comparative advantage theory 54
Heckscher–Ohlin theory 54
The Leontief paradox 55
CHAPTER 5

The protection of trade 69

Mark Cook
Introduction 69
Arguments for free trade 69
Tariffs as a barrier to trade 71
Tariff escalation and graduation and LDCs 75
Non-tariff barriers to trade 76
  Quotas 76
  Voluntary export restraints 77
  Discriminatory government procurement 80
  Production subsidies 81
  Export subsidies 81
  Tariff quotas 82
  Multiple exchange rates 82
  Indirect non-tariff barriers 83
Case study: Feathers fly 83
  Border measures and frontier formalities 85
  Cartels and concentrations 85
  Differences in VAT and other indirect taxes 85
The EU’s common commercial policy 86
Why the growth of non-tariff arrangements 86
GATT 87
  The GATT rounds 89
  The Uruguay round 90
Case study: WTO attacks EU banana licensing arrangements 95
Green trade issues 97
Conclusion 98
Questions for discussion 99
Main reading 99
Additional reading 100
CHAPTER 6

Economic integration 101

Haluk Sezer and Andrew Kilmister

Introduction 101
Forms of economic integration 101
The theory of customs unions 102
Partial equilibrium theory of customs unions 103
  Conclusions from Viner’s analysis 104
The terms of trade effects 105
Dynamic consequences of economic integration 105
Empirical studies 106
The adjustment costs of integration and implications for distribution 108
Economic integration in practice 109
Origins and nature of the EU 110
The development of the EU 112
Economic integration outside the EU 117
Case study: Mercosur 119
Case study: APEC 121
Questions for discussion 123
Main reading 124
Additional reading 124

CHAPTER 7

EU policy areas 126

Haluk Sezer, Mark Cook and Jon Stephens

Introduction 126
The problems of agriculture 126
  Short-term factors 126
  Long-term factors 127
Objectives of the CAP 127
The operation of the CAP 128
Green currencies 129
Assessment of the CAP 131
The impact of the CAP on the EC/EU 132
Costs of the CAP 132
The impact of the CAP on the rest of the world 133
The reform of the CAP 134
The MacSharry Plan 136
Case study: Reform of the CAP 137
The Common Fisheries Policy (CFP) 139
  Rationale for a policy 140
  Attempts at international regulation 141
  The development of European policy on fishing 142
  The problems with the CFP 143
Case study: Quota-hopping  145
Regional policy  146
  Theories behind the need for a regional policy  146
  Why the need for a European regional policy?  147
  The EU states' approach to regional policy  150
  Comparing the EU regional approaches  151
  Assessing regional policy at the member state level  152
European regional policy  152
Current regional policy in the EU  153
Case study: Regional aid  155
EU social policy  156
Transport policy  160
  Road haulage  161
  Air transport  161
Case study: Air transport  162
  Road passenger transport  164
  Rail transport  164
Conclusion  165
Questions for discussion  165
Main reading  166
Additional reading  166

CHAPTER 8

Industrial policy and competition policy  169

Alan Jarman

Introduction  169
Industrial policy  169
  What is the theory behind and the rationale for industrial policy?  172
  Public procurement  173
  State aids  174
Case study: State aid for Volkswagen and Credit Lyonnais  177
Competition policy  181
  What is meant by 'competition policy'?  181
  The objectives of competition policy  182
  The purpose of EU competition policy  184
  The practice of EU competition policy  186
  Article 85  186
  Article 86  189
  The conflict between domestic and EU competition rules  190
  Mergers and joint ventures  192
Conclusion  196
Questions for discussion  197
Main reading  198
Additional reading  198
CHAPTER 9
The Single European Market and Beyond  201

Judith Piggott

Introduction  201
Physical barriers  204
Fiscal barriers  205
Case Study: The effect of the SEM on UK brewers  207
Technical barriers  209
  Obstacles to free movement of goods  209
  Obstacles to free movement of services  212
  Obstacles to free movement of labour  218
Case study: The Bosman case and its effect on UK football clubs  219
  Obstacles to free movement of capital  220
  Public procurement  221
Regional matters  223
Social Charter  223
The impact of the SEM  225
  The impact on trade  226
  The impact on industrial concentration and market structure  226
  The impact on FDI  227
  Macro-economic effects  227
  The impact on business  228
Conclusion  229
Questions for discussion  230
Main reading  230
Additional reading  230
Appendix: The importance of Cassis de Dijon  232

CHAPTER 10
Multinational corporations  233

Alan Jarman

Introduction  233
What are MNCs and why are they important?  233
The largest companies in the world  234
MNC research  236
The positive and negative effects of MNCs  238
Governments and MNCs – a case for action?  240
Governments and MNCs – is action possible?  242
A paradigm for MNC analysis?  245
Conclusion  250
Case study: Sports/training shoes  250
Questions for discussion  251
Main reading  252
Additional reading  252
CHAPTER 11
Foreign direct investment  254

Haluk Sezer and Andrew Kilmister

Introduction  254
Definition  254
Historical pattern of FDI  255
   The pre-First World War period  255
   The inter-war period  256
   The post-war period  257
   Recent developments  258
Theories of FDI  260
The paradigm of ownership, location and internalisation (OLI)  260
Traditional theories of FDI  262
   Capital arbitrage theory  262
   FDI and international trade theory  262
Modern theories of FDI  262
   The Hymerian view  263
   The product-cycle model  263
   The internalisation theories of FDI  264
   The eclectic theory of FDI  264
The radical explanations of FDI  265
FDI in the European Union  265
   Scope of FDI in Western Europe  265
Distribution of investment within the European Union  267
The role of FDI in different sectors  268
Patterns of intra-EU FDI  270
Trade, investment and European integration  271
Empirical evidence on FDI and the EU and the role of the SEM  272
FDI in the European Union and industrial restructuring  275
Case study: Volkswagen in Spain and Portugal  276
The impact of FDI  278
Conclusion  279
Questions for discussion  280
Main reading  281
Additional reading  281

CHAPTER 12
Foreign exchange markets  283

Judith Piggott and Mark Cook

What is the foreign exchange market?  283
How is the exchange rate measured?  284
Nominal exchange rates  284
Effective exchange rates (EER)  286
Real exchange rates (RER)  286
Contents

Fixed and floating exchange rates 289
  Floating exchange rates 291
  Fixed exchange rates 294
Movements in exchange rates 296
  The balance of payments 296
  Purchasing power parity (PPP) 298
  Capital movements 301
  Direct investment 302
  Portfolio investment 302
  Bank lending and borrowing 303
  Exchange rate adjustment 304
Single currency 307
Case study: UK track to maker fears EMU opt-out 312
Impact of EMU on business 313
Optimum currency areas 315
Conclusion 316
Questions for discussion 317
Main reading 318
Additional reading 318

CHAPTER 13
International banking and capital markets 319

Mark Cook and Jon Stephens

Introduction 319
The growth of international capital markets 319
Eurocurrency markets 320
  The nature of Eurocurrency and the Eurocurrency markets 320
  The development and growth of the Euromarkets 322
  The major lenders and borrowers in Eurocurrency markets 324
  Eurocurrency interest rates 327
  The pattern of international money market interest rates 328
Other developments in the capital and banking sectors 329
  The derivatives market 332
Case study: Pulp futures 334
Case study: Derivatives 336
Who borrows in these capital markets and why? 337
The role of the international banks in world debt 339
  LDC debt 340
  The ways of resolving world debt 342
Is the debt crisis over? 345
Case study: The international debt crisis improves? 346
Banking and insurance in Europe 348
The structure of banking and insurance in Europe in the 1990s 349
Case study: Restructuring in Swedish banking 352
The impact of the single market 355
Strategic responses by retail banks 355
The impact of EMU on retail banking 356
Insurance in Europe 357
Case study: Cross-border deals in insurance 358
International financial capital markets in the 1990s and beyond 359
Conclusion 362
Questions for discussion 363
Main reading 363
Additional reading 364
Appendix: The relationship between money market interest rates associated with alternative currencies 365

CHAPTER 14
Central and Eastern Europe 367
Andrew Kilmister and Mark Cook
Introduction 367
Trade in Central and Eastern Europe before 1989 367
Foreign investment in Central and Eastern Europe before 1989 369
Trade relations between East and West after 1989 370
The potential extent of trade between East and West 371
Trade policy and the ‘Europe’ agreements 373
Movements in East–West trade since 1989 375
Trade within Eastern Europe after 1989 378
Foreign direct investment in Central and Eastern Europe since 1989 379
Patterns of FDI in Central and Eastern Europe 380
Case study: Two Western investors in Central and Eastern Europe 383
Privatisation in Central and Eastern Europe 387
  Hungary 389
  Poland 389
  Russia 390
  The Czech Republic 390
Case study: Bulgarian privatisation 390
Central and Eastern European banking 392
  Eastern European banking model 393
Central and Eastern European external debt 395
  Poland 395
  The Czech Republic 396
  Russia 397
  Hungary 397
EU enlargement 398
The costs and benefits of a wider EU 399
Case study: EU enlargement – a Spanish view 400
Case study: EU enlargement – the effect on the sugar industry 403
Conclusion 404