TABLE OF CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION
- Adapting our Institutions and Policies to the Changing Environment
- Decentralisation, Local Management: Challenges for a New Europe

PART 1: DECENTRALISATION OF THE PUBLIC EMPLOYMENT SERVICE
- Summary of Discussions
- The Italian Reform from a Regional Perspective: Veneto
- Lessons from Decentralisation in Canada
- The Challenges of Decentralisation in France: the Poitou-Charentes Region
- Taking Decentralisation a Step Further: Sub-Regional Employment Policy in Flanders
- Regionalisation through Centralisation: the Case of Switzerland
- Regionalising Policy: Innovations in Friuli-Venezia Giulia
- The Point of View of a Region Benefiting from High Autonomy: Valle d’Aosta
- A New Stage of Decentralisation in Mexico: Granting Autonomy to the States
- A Decentralised Model Taking Shape in New Zealand
- The Reform of the Public Employment Service in Spain
- Decentralisation in Poland: a Challenge in View of EU Membership
- Towards Regional Partnerships in the Czech Republic
- Quebec’s Choices: Partnership, Local Management and Activation
- Centralised Information Technology and Decentralised Employment Service: A Successful Combination in the United States
- Activating Policies at Local Level in Denmark
- Co-ordinating Policies in Federations: Russia
- Network-Building for Effective Regional Policy

MINISTERIAL STATEMENTS
- Local Partnerships in the UK: a Key for Effective Welfare to Work Policies
- Sweden: Local Innovations within a National Policy Framework
- A Decentralisation Reform Adapted to Italy’s Economic and Social Diversity
- Towards a More Flexible Public Employment Service in Turkey
- Ireland: an Area-Based Strategy for both Economic and Employment Development

PART 2: LOCAL PARTNERSHIPS
AND OTHER FLEXIBLE INSTITUTIONAL ADJUSTMENTS

Summary of Discussions 131
An Introduction to Local Partnerships and Institutional Flexibility 149
Co-ordinating Policies in an Integrated Approach: the Austrian Challenge 155
Denmark: Decentralisation within Tripartism 161
Decisions Taken on a Partnership Basis at All Levels: Portugal 165
Local Management in Economies in Transition: The Positive Experience of Hungary 173
The Contribution of Local Partnerships to Employment Services in Ireland 177
Local Management within an Integrated Approach:
North Rhine-Westphalia's Achievement 185
Towards Self-Reliance of Aboriginal People in Canada:
Empowerment in Labour Market Policy 191
Luxemburg, Too, Reaps the Benefits of Local Management 195
Efficient Local Management by Cities: Barcelona 199
Welfare to Work in a Decentralised Framework: Philadelphia's Challenges 205
Innovations by Cities: The Vienna Employees Assistance Fund 209
Creating Jobs and Enterprises that Answer Local Needs 213

CONCLUSION

The Italian Reform in Perspective: Towards Integrated Policies To Reconcile Competitiveness and Social Cohesion,
Give Policy-Making a Territorial Dimension 217

ANNEXES

Agenda 223
Main Issues for Discussion 229
List of Participants 239