
Contents

List of Figures	vii
List of Tables	viii
Preface	ix
Introduction:
Systems of Innovation and Future Innovation Policy at the Regional Level	1
1. Introduction	1
2. The Regional Innovation System Concept	2
3. The Research Approach	5
1. Global Asymmetries, Learning Economies and Regional Innovation in Europe	8
1. Introduction	8
2. What Kind of International Economy?	9
3. Where Does Europe Fit In?	14
4. What Are the Challenges to Policy?	18
5. Why Regional Innovation Systems and Regional Innovation Policy?	21
6. Conclusions	24
2. Regional Profiles and Trajectories of Change	27
1. Introduction	27
2. Globalization and Regionalization of Innovation	29
3. Theorizing New Regionalism	32
4. Conditions and Criteria for Regional Innovation Systems	34
5. Analysis and Classification of REGIS Case Regions	36
6. Conclusions	47
3. Competitive Strategies and Innovation	49
1. Introduction	49
2. Overall Pattern and Types of Firms	50
3. Differences Between REGIS Regions	59
4. Conclusions	71
4. The Innovation Process and Interactions of Firms: The Role of the Region	74
1. Introduction	74
2. Results of the Firm Survey	75

3. Results of the Company Interviews	90
4. Conclusions	94
5. Multi-level Governance and the Regional Organization of Innovation Support	97
1. Introduction	97
2. Multi-level Governance: Theory and Analysis	98
3. Operationalizing MLG in the Context of Regional Innovation	100
4. Regional Innovation Organization in Specific Cases: Towards a Typology	105
5. Concluding Remarks	118
6. Emerging Regional Innovation Policies: Present Profiles	120
1. Introduction	120
2. Public Policy in Regional Innovation Systems	120
3. Strengths and Weaknesses in Innovation Competences	123
4. The Challenges for Regional Innovation Policy: towards a systemic approach	134
7. Future Policy Options	136
1. Introduction	136
2. Emerging Regional Innovation Policy	136
3. Towards Systemic Regions	140
4. Designing for the Future: Policy Support in Regional Innovation Systems	143
8. The Governance of Innovation in Europe: Conclusions and Policy Implications	148
1. Introduction	148
2. The European Context	149
3. Social Capital, the Missing Ingredient?	152
4. Regional Firm Competitiveness and Innovation	156
5. Future Policy	160
References	162
Index	171

Figures

2.1	Scattergram of regional innovation systems potential	48
3.1	Competitive advantages of firms	51
3.2	How do firms sustain competitive advantage?	52
3.3	Challenges to companies	54
3.4	Responses to challenges	55
3.5	Product- and process-innovation	57
4.1	Regional networks of innovation	95
5.1	Multi-level governance of Regional Innovation Policy in the European Union	101
5.2	Multi-level governance of regional innovation in Lower Saxony	102
5.3	Multi-level governance of regional innovation in Valencia	103
5.4	Schematic illustration of the structuring of RSIs	104
5.5	Co-ordinated network model of systemic innovation organization	108
6.1	A simplified model of a regional innovation system	121
6.2	Level of empowerment and innovation policy competence in the REGIS regions	129

Tables

2.1	Conditions for higher and lower regional innovation systems potential	37
3.1	Competitive advantages of firms	50
3.2	Challenges to companies	53
3.3	Product and process innovation	56
3.4	R&D budgets and staff	58
3.5	New organizational practices	59
3.6	Competitive advantages by region	60
3.7	Competitiveness in regions of Eastern Europe	62
3.8	Challenges to companies by region	64
3.9	Challenges to companies in regions of Eastern Europe	65
3.10	Product and process innovation by region	67
3.11	R&D budgets and staff	68
3.12	New organizational practices by region	70
4.1	Innovation partners	76
4.2	Innovation partners of small firms (< 50 employees)	77
4.3	Innovation partners of medium-sized firms (50–200 employees)	78
4.4	Innovation partners of large firms (> 200 employees)	78
4.5	Innovation partners of subsidiaries/branch plants	79
4.6	Innovation partners of foreign firms	79
4.7	Innovation partners of product innovators	80
4.8	Innovation partners of process innovators	81
4.9	Innovation partners at the regional level	82
4.10	Innovation partners at the national level	83
4.11	Innovation partners at the European level	84
4.12	Use of support services	87
4.13	Use of support services by region	88
6.1	Overview of innovation policy tasks and level	125–7
7.1	Priority challenges for four ‘types’ of regions	141