

Contents

List of Figures, Tables and Appendices	vii
Notes on Contributors	viii
Acknowledgements	xiii
Introduction	1
Rachel Sieder
1 Indigenous Peoples and the State in Latin America: An Ongoing Debate	24
Rodolfo Stavenhagen
2 Constitutional Reform in the Andes: Redefining Indigenous–State Relations	45
Donna Lee Van Cott
3 Bolivia: From Indian and Campesino Leaders to Councillors and Parliamentary Deputies	74
Xavier Albó
4 Educational Reform in Guatemala: Lessons from Negotiations between Indigenous Civil Society and the State	103
Demetrio Cojtí Cuxil
5 Social Citizenship, Ethnic Minority Demands, Human Rights and Neoliberal Paradoxes: A Case Study in Western Mexico	129
Guillermo de la Peña
6 Peru: Pluralist Constitution, Monist Judiciary – A Post-Reform Assessment	157
Raquel Yrigoyen Fajardo
7 Recognising Indigenous Law and the Politics of State Formation in Mesoamerica	184
Rachel Sieder
8 Latin America’s Multiculturalism: Economic and Agrarian Dimensions	208
Roger Plant
9 Indigenous Peoples, Poverty and Participatory Development: The Experience of the World Bank in Latin America	227
Shelton H. Davis

10	The Excluded 'Indigenous'? The Implications of Multi-Ethnic Policies for Water Reform in Bolivia Nina Laurie, Robert Andolina and Sarah Radcliffe	252
	Index	277

List of Figures, Tables and Appendices

Figures

4.1 COPARE: civic and government representatives	112
4.2 Civil and governmental forces represented in the CCRE	119

Tables

2.1 Ethnic constitutional rights in the Andes	47
3.1 Previous militancy, according to party list adopted	84
3.2 Municipalities according to number of indigenous-campesino (i-c) councillors and their term of office as mayor	86

Appendices

4.1 COPARE delegates	125
4.2 CCRE's 15-point work plan	126
4.3 Member organisations of the CCRE	126
5.1 Social and employment programmes for Huichol communities	152