

Contents

List of Tables and Figures	ix
Preface	xi
1. Introduction: From Protest to Policy	i
2. Culture, Development, Parties, and Policies on Violence Against Women	29
3. Social Movements and Policies to Address Violence Against Women	61
4. The Effect of Women in Government on Policies on Violence Against Women	87
5. Sexing the State: The Impact of Political Institutions on Policies on Violence Against Women	105
6. Social Movements, Political Institutions, and Public Policies on Violence Against Women	138
7. Social Structures and Public Policy	165
8. Responding to Violence Against Women: Practical Lessons for Democrats, Feminists, and Policymakers	194
Appendix A: Compilation of Studies and Reports of Violence Against Women in Stable Democracies	211
Appendix B: Notes on Method and Measurement	218
Appendix C: List of Sources by Country	227
Notes	235
References	243
Index	279

Tables and Figures

Tables

1-1: 36 Countries Continuously Democratic from 1974 to 1994	23
2-1: Scope of National Policies on Violence Against Women	31
2-2: Scope of Government Response by Region, 1994	39
2-3: Coefficients, Dependent Variable = Scope of Government Response, 36 Countries, 1994	41
2-4: Scope of Government Response by Dominant Religion, 1994	43
2-5: Maternity Leave and Scope of Government Policy Response to Violence Against Women, 1994	46
2-6: Gender Development, Gender Empowerment, and Scope of Government Policy Response to Violence Against Women, 1994	48
2-7: Scope of Government Policy Response by Level of Development, 1994	53
2-8: Labor Mobilization and Scope of Government Policy Response, 1994	57
2-9: Political Parties in Power during Main Periods of Policy Innovation, Eight Most Responsive Governments (to 1994)	58
3-1: Characteristics of Women's Movements in Stable Democratic Countries and Scope of Government Policy Response to Violence Against Women	77
3-2: Coefficients, Dependent Variable = Scope of Government Response, 36 Countries, 1994	78
4-1: Women in Lower House during Main Period of Policy Innovation, Eight Most Responsive National Governments	98
4-2: Proportion of Women in Legislature and Scope of Government Policy Response, 1994	99
4-3: Coefficients, Dependent Variable = Scope of Government Response, 36 Countries, 1994	101
5-1: Coefficients, Dependent Variable = Scope of Government Response, 36 Countries, 1994	134

6-1: Responsiveness of Eight National Governments with Effective Policy Machineries, 1994	140
6-2: Coefficients, Dependent Variable = Scope of Government Response, 36 Countries, 1994	157
Appendix A: Compilation of Studies and Reports of Violence Against Women in Stable Democracies	211
Figures
5-1: Stetson and Mazur's Comparative Typology of State Feminist Offices	127
5-2: Proposed Typology of State Feminist Offices, 35 Countries	133