Part I

1. The Moral Imperatives of Global Capitalism: An Overview
   John H. Dunning

2. Private Morality and Capitalism: Learning from the Past
   Deepak Lal

3. Institutions and Morality: An Economist's Appraisal
   Alan Hamlin

4. Towards a New Paradigm of Development
   Joseph Stiglitz

5. Transformation of Society: Implications for Globalization
   Jack N. Behrman

Part II

6. An Ethical Framework for the Global Market Economy
   Hans Küng

7. The Challenge of Global Capitalism: A Christian Perspective
   Brian Griffiths

8. The Challenge of Global Capitalism: An Islamic Perspective
   Khurshid Ahmad

9. Global Covenant: A Jewish Perspective on Globalization
   Jonathan Sacks

10. The Challenge of Global Capitalism: The Perspective of Eastern Religions
    David R. Loy
Contents

Part III

11. A Universal Culture of Human Rights and Freedom's Habits:
   Caritapolis
   Michael Novak 253

12. On The Political Relevance of Global Civil Society
   Richard Falk 280

13. The Business Community: Social Responsibility and Corporate Values
   Robert Davies 301

14. Governments and Supranational Agencies: A New Consensus?
   Gordon Brown 320

    to the Poor
   Shirley Williams 334

16. Conclusions: In search of a Global Moral Architecture
   John H. Dunning 345

Index 371