

Contents

|                                       |   |     |
|---------------------------------------|---|-----|
| Acknowledgements               |   | ix  |
| Contributors                   |   | xi  |
| Introduction                   | Introduction: Containing women:competing moralities in prostitutionHelen Ward and Sophie Day | 3   |
|                                       | 1 Sex work in contextHelen Ward and Sophie Day   | 15  |
| Histories                      | 2 Culture clash: anti-trafficking activismor rights and health?Jo Doezema                    | 33  |
|                                       | 3 Why we need a sex workers' unionAna Lopez and Jenn Clamen                                      | 39  |
|                                       | 4 A new era for sex workers in Germany?Maya Czajka   | 53  |
|                                       | 5 Twenty years of action: the Committeefor Civil Rights of ProstitutesPia Couvre             | 75  |
| MobilityandMigration | 6 Daring border-crossers: a differentvision of migrant womenLaura M<sup>a</sup> Agustín      | 85  |
|                                       | 7 About sex, vaginas and passportsMAIZ   | 95  |
|                                       | 8 Mobility, policy and health in theNetherlandsThérèse van der Helm                          | 107 |

|                   |    |   |     |
|-------------------|----|---|-----|
| Health     | 9  | Health care for sex workers in EuropeRudolf Mak  | 123 |
|                   | 10 | Approaching health through the prism of stigma: research in seven European countriesSophie Day and Helen Ward for Europap        | 139 |
|                   | 11 | Approaching health through the prism of stigma: a longer term perspectiveSophie Day and Helen Ward                               | 161 |
|                   | 12 | Violence and sex work in BritainHilary Kinnell   | 179 |
| Policy     | 13 | Prostitution seen as Violence Against WomenLiv Jessen  | 201 |
|                   | 14 | Sex in the new Europe; The criminalisation of clients and Swedish fear of penetrationDon Kulick                                  | 215 |
|                   | 15 | Policies towards the sex industry in Europe: new models of controlJan Visser, with Arne Randers-Pehrson, Sophie Day, Helen Ward, | 241 |
| Conclusion | 16 | ReflectionsPriscilla Alexander   | 261 |
| Index      |    |   | 275 |

Tables and Figures

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| Estimates of the numbers of sex workers in different European Countries                                      | 23  |
| Demands of the International Union of Sex Workers  | 46  |
| Public appeal for Prostitutes' Rights, Comitato per i Diritti civili delle Prostitute. September 2000        | 76  |
| March of the Red Umbrellas   | 78  |
| The origin and gender and estimated numbers of prostitutes in The Netherlands                                | 108 |
| The prevalence of HIV-1 infection in a sample of sex workers in Lisbon, comparing results from 1991 and 2001 | 152 |
| London Ugly Mugs Reports, May 2000 – January 2002  | 183 |