

Contents in short

|  |           |
|--|-----------|
| Figures   | 11 |
| Tables  | 12 |
| Abbreviations   | 13 |
| Summary   | 15 |
| 1. Introduction  | 15        |
| 2. Impacts on health care systems  | 15        |
| 3. Comparison between social health insurance systems of Japan, Germany, France and the Netherlands          | 17        |
| 4. Lessons to ensure sustainable social health insurance systems and future developments                     | 24        |
| 1. Introduction   | 26 |
| 2. Challenges for health care systems   | 33 |
| 2.1 Trends in expenditures for health care   | 33        |
| 2.2 Causes for expenditure trends  | 35        |
| 3. Comparison among the social health insurance systems of Japan, Germany, France and the Netherlands | 47 |
| 3.1 Institutional and organisational framework   | 47        |
| 3.2 Funding  | 57        |
| 3.3 Provision and Purchasing of health services  | 70        |
| 4. Lessons to ensure sustainable social health insurance systems and future developments              | 88 |
| 4.1 Lessons towards sustainable social health insurance  | 88        |
| 4.2 Further Developments   | 90        |
| References  | 95 |

Contents

|   |    |
|---|----|
| Figures   | 11 |
| Tables  | 12 |
| Abbreviations   | 13 |
| Summary   | 15 |
| 1. Introduction   | 15 |
| 2. Impacts on health care systems   | 15 |
| 2.1. Trends in expenditures for health care   | 15 |
| 2.2 Causes for expenditure trends   | 15 |
| Demographic characteristics   | 15 |
| Changes in disease structure  | 16 |
| Technological progress  | 16 |
| Economic situation  | 16 |
| Changes in preferences  | 17 |
| Structural weaknesses of the system   | 17 |
| 3. Comparison between social health insurance systems of Japan, Germany, France and the Netherlands | 17 |
| 3.1. Institutional and organisational framework   | 17 |
| Membership, Enrolment, Coverage   | 17 |
| Benefits  | 17 |
| Ownership, number of sickness funds and freedom of choice   | 18 |
| Competition and risk structure compensation   | 18 |
| 3.2. Funding  | 19 |
| Contribution rates, income ceiling and contribution assessment bases                                | 19 |
| Contribution of pensioners  | 20 |
| Separation of health and long term care   | 20 |
| Burden of contributions at different income levels  | 20 |
| Burden sharing between employers and employees  | 20 |
| Governments' subsidies for sickness funds and out-of-pocket payments                                | 21 |
| 3.3 Provision and Purchasing of health services   | 21 |
| Health expenditures by type of services   | 21 |
| Hospital Care   | 21 |
| Ambulatory Care   | 22 |
| Long Term Care  | 23 |
| 4. Lessons to ensure sustainable social health insurance systems and future developments            | 24 |
| 4.1 Lessons towards sustainable social health insurance   | 24 |
| Competition vs. regulation of sickness funds  | 24 |
| Separation of long term care and high cost medical care   | 24 |
| Private Health Insurance  | 24 |
| User charges  | 25 |
| Reimbursing hospital care with DRG's  | 25 |

|   |    |
|---|----|
| 4.2 Further Developments  | 25 |
| 1. Introduction   | 26 |
| Financial and other current problems  | 26 |
| Risk management in theory   | 28 |
| Health policy: goals and entitlements   | 29 |
| Elements of health care reform  | 31 |
| 2. Challenges for health care systems   | 33 |
| 2.1 Trends in expenditures for health care  | 33 |
| 2.2 Causes for expenditure trends   | 35 |
| 2.2.1 Demographic characteristics   | 35 |
| 2.2.2 Changes in disease structure  | 38 |
| 2.2.3 Technological Progress  | 41 |
| 2.2.4 Economic situation  | 42 |
| 2.2.5 Changes in Preferences  | 44 |
| 2.2.6 Structural weaknesses of the systems  | 45 |
| 3. Comparison among the social health insurance systems of Japan, Germany, France and the Netherlands | 47 |
| 3.1 Institutional and organisational framework  | 47 |
| Membership, Enrolment, Coverage   | 47 |
| Benefits  | 48 |
| Ownership, number of sickness funds and freedom of choice   | 48 |
| Competition and risk structure compensation   | 53 |
| 3.2 Funding   | 57 |
| Contribution rates, income ceiling and contribution assessment bases                                  | 57 |
| Contribution of pensioners  | 58 |
| Separation of health and long term care   | 58 |
| Burden of contributions at different income levels  | 59 |
| Burden sharing between employers and employees  | 63 |
| Governments' subsidies for sickness funds and out-of-pocket payment                                   | 67 |
| 3.3 Provision and Purchasing of health services   | 70 |
| 3.3.1 Health expenditures by type of services   | 70 |
| 3.3.2 Hospital Care   | 72 |
| Ownership   | 72 |
| Access to services  | 73 |
| Hospital planning and contracting   | 74 |
| Reimbursement and spending control  | 76 |
| User charges  | 76 |
| 3.3.3 Ambulatory Care   | 79 |
| Employment status and organisation  | 79 |
| Dispensation of pharmaceuticals   | 79 |
| Manpower planning   | 79 |
| Contracting   | 82 |
| Claiming fees   | 82 |
| Reimbursement method  | 82 |

|  |    |
|--|----|
| 3.3.4. Long Term Care  | 85 |
| Planning   | 85 |
| Benefits   | 85 |
| Access   | 86 |
| User charges   | 86 |
| 4. Lessons to ensure sustainable social health insurance systems and future developments | 88 |
| 4.1 Lessons towards sustainable social health insurance                                  | 88 |
| Competition vs. regulation of sickness funds   | 88 |
| Separation of long-term care and high-cost medical care                                  | 88 |
| Private Health Insurance   | 89 |
| User charges   | 89 |
| Reimbursing hospital care with DRG's   | 90 |
| 4.2 Further Developments   | 90 |
| Functional approach and comprehensive all-around care                                    | 90 |
| Setting priorities in health care  | 91 |
| New ways of funding health care  | 92 |
| The future of the European Welfare State and international comparisons                   | 93 |
| References   | 95 |

Figures

|   |    |
|---|----|
| Figure 1.1: Financing gaps in social health insurance systems   | 27 |
| Figure 1.2: The current situation of the four health care systems   | 28 |
| Figure 1.3: Risk management and social welfare  | 29 |
| Figure 1.4: Goals of social security  | 30 |
| Figure 1.5: Entitlements to Health Care   | 30 |
| Figure 1.6: Elements of health care reform  | 31 |
| Figure 2.1: Total Health Expenditures per capita  | 33 |
| Figure 2.2: Total Health Expenditures in % of GDP   | 34 |
| Figure 2.3: Aging of the population in the four countries   | 36 |
| Figure 2.4: Standardized Expenditures in Germany according to age and gender  | 38 |
| Figure 2.5: Average Life expectancy at birth in the four countries  | 40 |
| Figure 2.6: Potential years of life lost due to diseases in the four countries  | 42 |
| Figure 2.7: Standardised unemployment rates in the four countries   | 43 |
| Figure 2.8: Development of state budgets in the four countries  | 44 |
| Figure 2.9: Maslow's hierarchy of needs pyramid   | 45 |
| Figure 3.1: Different sources of funding as % of total health expenditures  | 60 |
| Figure 3.2: Contributions at different income levels according to contribution rates in the four countries.             | 63 |
| Figure 3.3: Contributions at different income levels according to contribution rates of employees in the four countries | 64 |
| Figure 3.4: Employee and total contribution at different income level for each country                                  | 65 |
| Figure 4.1: Integration of providers in health care of the elderly  | 91 |
| Figure 4.2: Setting priorities in health care   | 92 |
| Figure 4.3: Financing health care in the future   | 93 |
| Figure 4.4: The future of the European welfare state I  | 94 |
| Figure 4.5: The future of the European welfare state II   | 94 |

Tables

|  |    |
|--|----|
| Table 2.1: Population and population density in 2001 and 2050  | 37 |
| Table 2.2: Body Mass Index in the four countries   | 39 |
| Table 2.3: Healthy life expectancy (HALE) from WHO at birth and at age 60, estimates for 2000 and 2001                               | 40 |
| Table 3.1: Membership in different sickness funds as % of total population   | 51 |
| Table 3.2: Number of sickness funds according to different schemes   | 52 |
| Table 3.3: Comparison of the institutional and organizational framework of social health insurance on the basis of selected criteria | 55 |
| Table 3.4: Change of funding sources as % of the total health expenditure  | 62 |
| Table 3.5: Comparison of funding principles of social health insurance systems according to selected criteria                        | 68 |
| Table 3.6: Health expenditures by type of services as % of total health expenditure  | 71 |
| Table 3.7: Development of ownership of general hospitals in each country   | 73 |
| Table 3.8: Access to inpatient services  | 74 |
| Table 3.9: Hospital infrastructure and utilization   | 75 |
| Table 3.10: Planning, contracting, reimbursement and user charges in hospital care   | 78 |
| Table 3.11: Number of physicians   | 80 |
| Table 3.12: Organisation, Employment status, planning and access to ambulatory care  | 81 |
| Table 3.13: Purchasing and contracting of ambulatory care  | 84 |
| Table 3.14: Infrastructure characteristics of long-term care   | 85 |
| Table 3.15: Long term care: planning, coverage, access and user charges  | 87 |