Contents

List of contributors xi
Foreword xiii
Mary Vachon

1. Introduction 1
   Peter Speck

2. Team or group—spot the difference 7
   Peter Speck

3. The effect of the setting on the work of the team 25
   Michaela Bercovitch and Abraham Adunsky

4. User involvement—the patient and carer as team members? 41
   David Oliviere

5. Leaders and followers 65
   Peter Speck

6. Sitting close to death 83
   Noreen Ramsay

7. Maintaining a healthy team 95
   Peter Speck

8. Team building: how, why and where? 117
   Malcolm Payne

9. Communication—an essential tool for team hygiene 137
   Ian Maddocks

10. Training in the interdisciplinary environment 153
    Iain Lawrie and Mari Lloyd-Williams

11. Ethical issues in multidisciplinary teamwork within palliative care 167
    Bobbie Farsides

ix
Contents

12. Legal issues of multiprofessional teamwork
   Jonathan Montgomery
   183

13. Team effectiveness
   Barbara Monroe and Peter Speck
   201

14. Conclusion
   Peter Speck
   211

Index
   217