

CONTENTS

Address of the President to the Holy Father	XVII
Address of Benedict XVI to the Members of the Pontifical Academy of Social Sciences	XIX
Report of the President	XXI
Preface (Edmond Malinvaud)	XXVI
Programme of the Eleventh Plenary Session	XXVII
List of Participants	XXX

SCIENTIFIC PAPERS

L'objet de la Session Edmond Malinvaud	3
--	---

PART I – THEOLOGICAL AND PHILOSOPHICAL BACKGROUND

Antropologia Cristiana Angelo Card. Scola.....	7
Comment: Sur 'Anthropologie chrétienne' de Angelo Card. Scola Edmond Malinvaud	25
Un premier essai d'anthropologie chrétienne: Tertullien Archbishop Roland Minnerath	33
The Anthropology of Karol Wojtyla Has Two Main Features Rocco Buttiglione	44
Comments: Msgr. Michel Schooyans.....	54

The Human Person Conceptualized by John Paul II as a 'Bridge Builder' (Ponti-Fex)
Jerzy Zubrzycki.....	61
The Classical Notion of the Person in Today's Philosophical Debate
Enrico Berti.....	63
Comment:
Vittorio Possenti.....	78
A Reflection on the Eastern Concept of the Human Person – Highlighting Some Elements of Hindu and Taoist Worldviews
Mina M. Ramirez.....	95
PART II – LAW AND POLITICAL SCIENCE
Conceptualization of the Person in American Law
Mary Ann Glendon	103
Comment:
The Concept of the Human Person in Anglo-American Law
Nicholas McNally.....	117
Menaces sur la personne
Georges Card. Cottier	122
Die Idee der Menschenwürde als Mitte der modernen Verfassungsstaaten
Paul Kirchhof.....	140
Comments:
Human Dignity in the Social Doctrine of the Church and the Context of International Law
Krzysztof Skubiszewski.....	162
The Great Human Rights Spectacle: On Politicized Law and Juridified Politics in Europe
Janne Matlary	170
Dal diritto romano al diritto europeo
Francesco P. Casavola.....	189
Comment:
Ombretta Fumagalli Carulli.....	200

The Human Person in Theravada Buddhism and Islam: Implications for Governance in Southeast Asia
Wilfrido V. Villacorta	209

Die Menschenwürde im öffentlichen Recht und in der politischen Wissenschaft
Herbert Schambeck	235

PART III – SOCIOLOGY AND PSYCHOLOGY

Persons and Ultimate Concerns: Who We Are is What We Care About
Margaret S. Archer	261

Comment:

Understanding the Human Person as a Relational Subject: An 'After'-Modern Paradigm for the Social Sciences (or: The 'Economy' of Human Persons Lies on Their Ultimate Concerns)
Pierpaolo Donati	284

Positioning Theory and Moral Structure of Close Encounters
Rom Harré	296

Comment:

The Concept of the Person as the Gift of Society
Margaret S. Archer	313

What Makes Us Tick? Interest, Passion and Reason
Jon Elster	323

Comment:

Paulus Zulu	337
-------------------	-----

Persons: Points of Condensation in a Sea of Living Interactions
John Shotter	340

Comments:

Jerzy Zubrzycki	357
Pedro Morandé	360

PART IV – ECONOMICS

The Human Person in Normative Economics
Serge-Christophe Kolm	360
Comment:
Christopher Bliss	414
Conceptualization of Agents in Positive Economic Theories
Edmond Malinvaud	419
Comment:
Joseph Stiglitz	442
Conceptions of Human Beings Implicit in Economics and in the Practice of Economic Policy
Juan J. Llach	447
Comments:
Hans Tietmeyer	478
Is Scientism a Threat to the Objectives of the Economy and Economic Policy?
José T. Raga	489
 Conclusions
Edmond Malinvaud	498

PRESENTATION OF THE NEW BOOK

Presentation of 'Democracy in Debate: The Contribution of the Pontifical Academy of Social Sciences'
Mary Ann Glendon	505
Democracy in Debate
Hans Zacher	507