

Contents

Preface	1
Antonius Liedhegener Civic Engagement by Religion. American Civil Society and the Catholic Case in Perspective. An Introduction	3
 I. Civil Society and Religion in the U.S.
John Farina A Fresh Moment of Dialogue. Religion and Liberalism Revisited	19
Mark Chaves Congregations' Significance to American Civic Life	31
Corwin E. Smidt Faith-Based Initiatives: A New Chance or a Political Threat to American Civil Society?	45
Frank Adloff Civil Society, Civic Engagement, and Religion: Findings and Research Problems in Germany and the U.S.	63
 II. Civic Engagement and Volunteering in American Catholicism: Research
Margaret O'Brien Steinfels Catholic Civic Engagement: Recent Debates and Positions within the Catholic Church	95
Gerald P. Fogarty, S.J. Volunteerism in the Land of Voluntarism: The American Catholic Church	109
James D. Davidson/Mark McCormick Catholics and Civic Engagement: Empirical Findings at the Individual Level	119

Meghan Davis/Antonius Liedhegener
Catholic Civic Engagement at the Local Level. The Parish and Beyond 135

Bryan T. Froehle
Organizing Volunteering? National Catholic Organizations and Civic Engagement 161

III. Catholic Volunteering and Catholic Civic Engagement in Practice: Examples

Martin Kaiser
Volunteering as a Topic of Intercultural Learning.
Experiences from German-American Exchange Programs 203

Andreas Henkelmann
“CrossingOver”: A Project Supporting the Dialogue on the Catholic Church and Parish Life in the United States and Germany 213

Bryan T. Froehle
Parish Planning Processes and Catholic Volunteering in the U.S. 217

Jeffry Odell Korgen
State Catholic Conferences, Local Bishops, and Volunteer Leaders:
A Pastoral Reflection on Catholic Legislative Advocacy
on the Diocesan Level 233

IV. Catholic Civic Engagement and American Society: Contexts

Antonius Liedhegener
Still Something Special? The Recent Debate on Civil Society and Religion in the U.S. and the Catholic Tradition 241

John Farina
The Future of Catholic Civic Engagement 257

Contributors 275