The Evolution of Technology

GEORGE BASALLA
Department of History, University of Delaware

The right of the University of Cambridge to print and sell all manner of books was granted by Henry VIII in 1534. The University has printed and published continuously since 1534.

CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY PRESS
CAMBRIDGE
NEW YORK PORT CHESTER MELBOURNE SYDNEY
Contents

Preface

I  Diversity, Necessity, and Evolution

II  Continuity and Discontinuity

III  Novelty (1): Psychological and Intellectual Factors

IV  Novelty (2): Socioeconomic and Cultural Factors

V  Selection (1): Economic and Military Factors

VI  Selection (2): Social and Cultural Factors

VII  Conclusion: Evolution and Progress

Bibliography

Sources of Quotations

Index