Contested Sites

Commemoration, Memorial and Popular Politics in Nineteenth-Century Britain

PAUL A. PICKERING and ALEX TYRRELL

with Michael T. Davies, Nicholas Mansfield and James Walvin

Preface by Iain McCalman

ASHGATE
Contents

Studies in Labour History General Editor’s Preface vii

List of Figures viii

Foreword ix

Notes on Contributors x

Preface by Iain McCalman xi

Bibliographical Note xvi

1. The Public Memorial of Reform: Commemoration and Contestation 1
   Paul A. Pickering and Alex Tyrrell

2. Bearding the Tories: The Commemoration of the Scottish Political Martyrs of 1793–94 25
   Alex Tyrrell with Michael T. Davis

3. A ‘Grand Ossification’: William Cobbett and the Commemoration of Tom Paine 57
   Paul A. Pickering

4. Radical Banners as Sites of Memory: The National Banner Survey 81
   Nicholas Mansfield

5. The Chartist Rites of Passage: Commemorating Feargus O’Connor 101
   Paul A. Pickering

6. Preserving the Glory for Preston: The Campo Santo of the Preston Teetotalers 127
   Alex Tyrrell

7. Whose History Is It? Memorialising Britain’s Involvement in Slavery 147
   Alex Tyrrell and James Walvin

Index 171