Religion in the History of the Medieval West
CONTENTS

Preface vii–ix

APPROACHES TO MEDIEVAL CULTURE AND RELIGION

I The Christian Middle Ages as an Historiographical Problem 519–552
The American Historical Review 91. Washington, DC, 1986

II The Future of Medieval Church History 492–522
Church History 71. Durham, NC, 2002

III The “Crisis of Cenobitism” Reconsidered: Benedictine Monasticism in the Years 1050–1150 269–304
Speculum 61. Cambridge, MA, 1986

IV An Afterword on Medieval Studies, Or the Future of Abelard and Heloise 401–431

CHRISTENING THE SOCIAL ORDER

V Christening the Romans 1–45
Traditio 52. New York, 1997

VI Faith as a Concept of Order in Medieval Christendom 19–67

VIII ‘God is no Respecter of Persons’: Sacred Texts and Social Realities 243–264

RE-INVENTING RELIGIOUS LIFE IN MEDIEVAL SOCIETY

IX Dominic and the Brothers: Vitae as Life-forming exempla in the Order of Preachers 7–25

X Friar Johannes Nyder on Laypeople Living as Religious in the World 583–615

Index 1–8

This volume contains x + 332 pages