sandra leanne bosacki

the culture
of classroom
silence
CONTENTS

List of Tables .................................................. xi

Preface ..................................................... xiii

Acknowledgments ........................................... xix

Introduction: Schooling the Silences:
A Psychocultural Exploration ............................. 1
Organization and Outline of the Book ................. 2

Chapter 1 Meanings of Silence: Exploring the Landscape of Classroom Silence ...................................... 3

Introduction ........................................... 3

The Cultural Landscape of Adolescence:
Shifting Silences ......................................... 3

Autonomy, Identity, and Silence ....................... 5

Silence and Voice During Adolescence:
Empirical Evidence ...................................... 6

Why Are the Silences of Adolescents Special? ....... 8

The Shifting Landscape of Adolescence: Sociocultural
Perspectives on Gender, Sexuality, and Literacies ... 10

Silence and Social Relations in Adolescents .......... 11

Spirituality, Silence, and Language ................. 18

Spirituality: A Brief Overview ........................ 19

Spirituality, Religiosity, and Faith Development .... 20

Conceptions of Mind and Models of Spirituality: Historical and Theoretical Issues ................................... 21

Contemporary Psychological Perspectives on Spirituality and Silence: Cognitive Psychology, Faith, and Self-Development 23
Chapter 2 Setting the Stage: Causes and Characteristics
of Classroom Silence ........................................ 39

Introduction ............................................. 39

Roots of Silence ........................................ 40

Social Cognitive Research: Theory of Mind ........ 40

Adolescent Theories of Mind: A Case for Complexity .... 42

Conceptual role-taking ................................ 46

Empathetic sensitivity ................................ 48

Person perception .................................... 49

Self-Conception and Self-Understanding .......... 50

Adolescents' Theory of Mind and Self-Concept ... 53

Language, Sociocommunication, and Emotions .... 54

Psychological Understanding, Self, and Social Relations in Adolescence ................. 60

Psychological Understanding and Schooling ....... 64

Sociocognitive Psychology and Silence: Does Silence Help or Hurt the Adolescent? .... 65

Helpful Silence: Intrapersonal and Interpersonal .... 65

Spirituality, silence, and mental health in adolescence .................................................. 66

Positive psychology movement .................. 70

Hurtful Silence: Intrapersonal and Interpersonal ...... 72

Self-silencing ..................................... 72

Silence and social relations ....................... 73

Silence, social withdrawal, and shyness .......... 75

Methodological Issues: Cautions Regarding the Study of Classroom Silence .......... 76

Summary .......................................... 78
Chapter 3 Cases of Classroom Silence: Sociocultural and Educational Issues

Introduction

79

Metacognition and Silence in the Classroom: The Need for a Psychocultural Approach

80

Ethnicity and Race

83

- Racial and ethnic silences in the classroom
- School experiences of racial and ethnic discrimination
- Transcultural religious faiths and spirituality: empirical evidence

Gender, Silence, and Social Cognition

95

- Gendered emotions
- Gendered silences and spirituality
- Silence and sexual subjectivities
- Gender, autonomy, voice, and silence

Socioeconomic Status and Silence

110

Developmental Exceptionalities: Special Needs and Silences

113

Socioemotional Development of Youth with Exceptional Needs: Empirical Evidence

115

Summary

121

Chapter 4 Pragmatics of Silence: How Can We “School the Silences?”

Introduction

122

Pedagogical Directions: Creating the Caring, Connecting Curriculum

123

- Casting Call: Classroom Relationships
- Setting the Stage: Communication Ensures Psychological Comfort

The Connecting Curriculum: Psychocultural Educational Strategies

135

- Developing a Curriculum for the Inner Self
  - Self-connections
  - Community connections
  - Earth connections

Classroom Strategies for Fostering Silence Sensibilities

141

- Self and Social Understandings
- Societal and Cultural Understandings
- Moral Understandings
- Spiritual and/or Religious Understandings

Culture and Cognition in the Classroom: Educational Programs

150