Christoph Buchheim (ed.)

German Industry in the Nazi Period

Franz Steiner Verlag Stuttgart 2008
Contents

Preface .................................................................................................................. 5

List of Tables and Figures ............................................................................... 9

1. Christoph Buchheim
   Introduction: German Industry in the Nazi Period ................................. 11

2. Michael Ebi
   The Overvaluation of the Reichsmark: Effects on Manufactured
   Exports and German Foreign Trade Policy ........................................... 27

3. Gerd Höschle
   The Textile Industry as Training Ground for State Intervention .......... 39

4. Ulrich Hensler
   Iron and Steel Rationing During the Third Reich .................................. 53

5. Rüdiger Hachtmann
   Labour Policy in Industry ........................................................................ 65

6. André Steiner
   Industry and Administrative Price Regulation 1933–1938/39 .............. 85

7. Adam Tooze
   The Rosetta Stone of German Industry: The Reich's Census of Industrial Production 1936 ............................................................. 97

8. Jonas Scherner
   Investment Contracts Between State Agencies and Industry in the Third Reich .............................................................................................. 117

9. Frank Bajohr
   Industry and Corruption: The Example of the Reemtsma Cigarette
   Factories .................................................................................................. 133

10. Gerald D. Feldman
    The Creditanstalt-Bankverein and Industry in the Wake of the Anschluss ............................................................................................... 143
11. Johannes Bähr
   Banks and Industry in the 1930s: The Case of the Dresdner Bank .......... 161

12. Jochen Streb
   Inter-Industry Knowledge Transfer in the German Plastics Industry of the Third Reich and its Effects on the Post-War Years ......................... 179

13. Raymond Stokes
   Research and Development in German Industry in the Nazi Period:
   Motivations and Incentives, Directions, Outcomes .......................... 199

Authors ........................................................................................................... 213