THEMATIC CATALOGUES IN MUSIC
AN ANNOTATED BIBLIOGRAPHY

Second Edition

by BARRY S. BROOK and
RICHARD VIANO

ANNOTATED REFERENCE TOOLS IN MUSIC No. 5

PENDRAGON PRESS
STUYVESANT, NY
Contents

List of Reproductions vii

Introduction to the First Edition: On the definitions, history, functions, historiography, and future of the thematic catalogue ix

Early history and function xi
Mnemonic /ua xi
Table of Contents xii
Guide to a composer's own output xii
Inventory of library holdings xii
Copying firm advertisements xiii
Publishing firm advertisements xiii
Legal documents xiv
Compilation of true themes or motives xiv
Musicological documentation xiv

Recent history xv
Historiography xvi
Outlook xviii

Acknowledgments xxi

Introduction to the Second Edition: Further reflections on the past, present, and future of the thematic catalogue in music xxiii

Guidelines for Thematic catalogues xxviii
Literature about Thematic Catalogues xxix
Thematic catalogue coverage xxix
Music uniform titles xxix
Recent catalogue production xxx

Catalysts xxx
Thematic catalogues in series (1969–1994) xxxii
Computer-generated catalogues xxxvi
World Wide Web/Internet xxxvii
Catalogue coverage xxxvii

Outlook xxxviii

Selected literature xxxix
I: General xli
II: Computers and Catalogues xlii
PS re: Function xliii
PS re: Acknowledgments xliii

Using the Bibliography xliv

Abbreviations: General xlvi
Periodicals xlvii
Libraries xlviii
CONTENTS

THEMATIC CATALOGUES IN MUSIC: AN ANNOTATED BIBLIOGRAPHY

Appendix A: Manuscript thematic catalogues before 1830
Appendix B: Printed thematic catalogues before 1830
Appendix C: Catalogues recommended for use in Uniform Title References
Appendix D: Concerts Spirituels Second Livraison, Avignon Seguin, ca. 1835, with Table Thématique of 89 compositions

Using the Index

Index