Contents

Part 1: Introduction

Guus Extra and Ludo Verhoeven
Immigrant minority groups and immigrant minority languages in Europe ........................................... 3

Guus Extra and Ludo Verhoeven
Processes of language change in a migration context: the case of the Netherlands .................................. 29

Part 2: Early bilingual development

Suzanne Romaine
Early bilingual development: from elite to folk ................................................................. 61

Annick De Houwer
Environmental factors in early bilingual development: the role of parental beliefs and attitudes ............. 75

Carol W. Pfaff
Changing patterns of language mixing in a bilingual child ......................................................... 97

Hanneke van der Heijden
Word formation processes in young bilingual children ............................................................ 123

Part 3: Bilingual development at school age

Jeroen Aarssen and Petra Bos
Cohesive devices in bilingual development ................................................................. 143

Åke Viberg
Lexical development in a second language ................................................................. 165

Ruth A. Berman
Bilingual proficiency / proficient bilingualism: insights from narrative texts .................................... 187
Part 4: Codeswitching and borrowing

Carol Myers-Scotton
Compromise structural strategies in codeswitching .......................... 211

Pieter Muysken
Three processes of borrowing: borrowability revisited ...................... 229

Lars Johanson
Frame-changing code-copying in immigrant varieties ...................... 247

Ad Backus
The intergenerational codeswitching continuum in an immigrant community ........................................ 261

Louis Boumans
Codeswitching and the organisation of the mental lexicon ................ 281

Part 5: Language maintenance and language loss

Sally Boyd and Sirkku Latomaa
Fishman’s theory of diglossia and bilingualism in the light of language maintenance and shift in the Nordic Region ......................... 303

Arturo Tosi
The notion of ‘community’ in language maintenance ....................... 325

Kees de Bot
The psycholinguistics of language loss ............................................. 345

Abder El Aissati and Anneli Schaufeli
Language maintenance and loss: evidence from language perception and production ........................................ 363

Index ............................................................................................... 379