

HANDBOOK
OF
AMERICAN-JEWISH LITERATURE

*An Analytical Guide to
Topics, Themes, and Sources*

LEWIS FRIED
Editor-in-Chief

Gene Brown,
Jules Chametzky,
and
Louis Harap
Advisory Editors

GREENWOOD PRESS
New York • Westport, Connecticut • London

Contents

Acknowledgments	xi
Introduction
Lewis Fried	1
1. In the Beginning: American-Jewish Fiction, 1880–1930
David Martin Fine	15
2. American-Jewish Fiction, 1930–1945
Lewis Fried	35
3. American-Jewish Fiction Since 1945
Bonnie K. Lyons	61
4. The Greening of American-Jewish Drama
Ellen Schiff	91
5. American-Jewish Poetry: An Overview
R. Barbara Gitenstein	123
6. Yiddish Dreams in America
Joseph C. Landis	143
7. American Yiddish Literary Criticism
Hannah Berliner Fischthal	167

8. A Question of Tradition: Women Poets in Yiddish Kathryn Hellerstein	195
9. Makers of a Modern American-Jewish Theology Arnold Jacob Wolf	239
10. Zionist Ideology in America David Polish	261
11. American-Jewish Autobiography, 1912 to the Present Steven J. Rubin	287
12. Images of America in American-Jewish Fiction Sanford E. Marovitz	315
13. Eastern Europe in American-Jewish Writing Asher Z. Milbauer	357
14. Shadows of Identity: German-Jewish and American-Jewish Literature—A Comparative Study Gershon Shaked (Translated by Jeffrey Green)	391
15. Fiction of the Holocaust Dorothy Seidman Bilik	415
16. The Holocaust and Its Historiography: The Major Texts Saul Friedman	441
17. American-Jewish Fiction: The Germanic Reception Sepp L. Tiefenthaler	471
18. Guide to European Bibliography Sepp L. Tiefenthaler	505
Selected Reference Materials and Resources	509
Index	513
Contributors and Advisors	537