The Handbook of Sociolinguistics

Edited by

Florian Coulmas
Contents

List of Figures vii
List of Tables viii
List of Contributors ix
Introduction
FLORIAN COULMAS 1

Part I Foundations 13
1 The Evolution of a Sociolinguistic Theory of Language
   R. B. LE PAGE 15
2 The Demography of Language
   ALBERT F. VERDOODT 33

Part II Social Dimensions of Language 45
3 Varieties and Variation
   JAMES MILROY AND LESLEY MILROY 47
4 Language Change in Progress: Variation as it Happens
   NORMAN DENISON 65
5 Social Factors in Language Change
   WILLIAM BRIGHT 81
6 Sociophonology
   JOHN HONEY 92
7 Dialect in Society
   WALT WOLFRAM 107
8 Gender as a Sociolinguistic Variable: New Perspectives on Variation Studies
   RUTH WODAK AND GERTRAUD BENKE 127
9 Age as a Sociolinguistic Variable
   PENEOPE ECKERT 151
Figures

2.1 The French version of the questionnaire recommended in Belgium in 1960 43
3.1 Model of transition from speaker innovation to linguistic change 51
3.2 Deletion of medial /ð/ in words of the type mother, together 56
3.3 /ð/ in New York City 57
3.4 Percentage of glottalized variants of /p/, /t/, and /k/ in word-medial position in two speech styles of 16 Tynesiders 58
5.1 Class stratification of syllable-final r for five speech styles 87
6.1 The accent continuum 96
7.1 Vowel rotation in northern cities shift 112
7.2 The southern vowel shift 112
7.3 Possible relations of linguistic and social variables 121
8.1 Style shifting of (oh) by three socioeconomic groups in New York City 134
8.2 The northern cities chain shift 142
8.3 Interactions between a judge and defendants 146
21.1 A cyclical model of language planning 349
21.2 A taxonomy of structural variables affecting ethnolinguistic vitality 354
21.3 An illustrated model of language development 355
21.4 A general power model of contextual and vital forces and their resolution 356
25.1 The use of two languages in school 417