Acknowledgments ix

Introduction: Is There a Class in This Text? 1

1 The Social Imaginary in Prerevolutionary France 14
   God-Given Order
   Bourgeois Gentlemen
   Rethinking Nobility
   The Good Earth

2 Commerce, Luxury, and Family Love 41
   Wealth, Circulation, and the New World of Objects
   Luxury and "Les Moeurs"
   Love, Tears, and Social Fusion

3 Revolutionary Brotherhood and the War against Aristocracy 69
   What Was the Third Estate?
   Popular Violence and Propertied Citizens
   Brothers in Arms
   Defining the Enemy

4 The Social World after Thermidor 102
   A Social Revolution?
   In the Wake of the Terror
CONTENTS

Historical Change and the New Aristocracy
Honor and the State

5 The Political Birth of the Bourgeoisie, 1815–1830 131

Industry without Bourgeoisie
The Politics of the Present
The Politics of the Past
Politics and Class

6 The Failure of “Bourgeois Monarchy” 161

How Bourgeois was the Bourgeois Monarchy?
The Dangerous Middle Ground
Antibourgeois Universalism
Balzac’s World

Conclusion: The Bourgeois, the Jew, and the American 193

Notes 207

Index 245