MASS MEDIA VI
AN INTRODUCTION TO MODERN COMMUNICATION

Ray Eldon Hiebert.........University of Maryland
Donald F. Ungurait.........Florida State University
Thomas W. Bohn.........Ithaca College

Longman
New York & London
Contents

Preface xvii

PART ONE

THE PROCESS AND THE PARTICIPANTS 1

1 The Critical Consumer in the Process of Mass Communication .................................................... 3

The Four Levels of Communication 5
Visualizing the Communication Process 6
The HUB Model of Mass Communication 9
Content: Entertainment, News, Commentary, Education, Public Relations and Advertising — Communicators
— Codes — Gatekeepers — Mass Media — Regulators — Filters — Audiences — Effects — Media
Distortion and Noise — Media Amplification — Feedback
The Significance of the Mass Media 16
Summary 18 References 19

2 The Conglomerate Communicator ................................................................. 20

The Characteristics of the Mass Communicator 22
Competitiveness — Size and Complexity — Industrialization — Specialization — Representation
Communicator Roles in Media Organizations 26
The Print Media — Organizations That Connect Communicators: Wire Services and Syndicates — The Broadcast Media: Networks, Production Companies, Television Syndicators, and Local Stations — Motion Pictures
The Individual in Mass Communication 40
Summary 41 References 42

3 The Impact of Media Economics ............................................................................. 43

The Economic Perspective 43
The Power of Consumer Decision making — The Relationship of Structure, Conduct, and Performance
Economic Structure 47
Case Study: The Rise of Rupert Murdoch — Using the New Advantages
Economic Conduct 55
The Monopoly — The Oligopoly — Competition in the System — Case Study: Marketing Movies
Economic Performance  62
Efficiency as a Goal — Access to Technological Advances — The Question of Access to Communication
— Criticisms of the Media
The Interplay of Structure, Conduct, and Performance  64
Radio: Monopolistic Competition — Newspapers: Growing Monopoly
The Consequences of Building Megapower  68
Case Study: Tele-Communications, Inc.
Summary  70  References  70

4 The Dynamics of Codes and Formats ............................................. 71
The Relationship of the Content, the Code, and the Medium  71
Mass-Media Coding Systems  74
Symbols — Styles — Formats — The Impact of Coding Systems
Coding in the Print Media  75
Linear Progression — Page Design: Styles and Formats — The Building Blocks of Print: Type, Headlines,
Headings, and Titles; Photographs and Illustrations; Charts, Graphs, and Tables; Captions; Margins and White
Space — Individual Print Media: Books, Newspapers, Magazines
Coding in the Electronic Media  81
The Building Blocks of Sound: Voice, Music, Sound Effects, Silence — The Building Blocks of Sight: Intrashot
Elements and Intershot Elements — Experience Intensified
Summary  90  References  90

5 Gatekeepers, Regulators, and Guardians ........................................... 91
Gatekeepers within the Media  91
The Roles of Editors — The Impact of Big Business — Professional Standards — Motion Picture Gatekeeping
— The Social Context
The Government as Regulator  100
Regulation to Protect Society and Government — The Federal Communications Commission — The Regulation of Advertising
The Content Source as Regulator  103
Strategic Releasing — Strategic Withholding — Strategic Staging
The Advertiser as Regulator  105
The Consumer as Regulator  109
Summary  109  References  110

6 The Fragmented Audience: Filters and Feedback ................................ 111
The Characteristics of an Audience  111
Sociological Responses to Content  113
The Individual-Differences Perspective — The Social-Differences Perspective — The Social-Relationships
Perspective
The Role of Filtration in Audience Response  116
The Conditions of Filtration: Informational and Linguistic Filters, Psychological Filters, Cultural Filters, and Physical Filters — Audience Environments
Noise  122
Weak Signals — Clutter — Information Overload — The Audience’s Defensive Mechanism
Amplification  126
Feedback: Characteristics and Mechanisms  127
The Representative Quality — The Indirect Quality — The Delayed Quality — The Cumulative Quality —
The Quantitative Quality — The Institutionalized Quality — Cost
CONTENTS

Techniques of Obtaining Feedback 134
  Personal Interview — Coincidental-Telephone Survey — Diary — Mechanical Device — Preview
Feedback in the Media 136
  Motion Pictures and Sound Recordings — The Broadcast Media: Cume, HUT, Ratings, Share, CPM — The Print Media
The Impact of Feedback 143
Summary 144 References 146

PART TWO

THE PERSUADERS 147

7  Public Relations: Shaping Messages for the Mass Media 149
  Public Opinion and the History of Public Relations 150
  Models of Public-Relations Practice 151
  Press Agentry or Publicity — Public Information — Two-way Communication
  Public-Relations Roles and Functions 155
  Corporate Communications — Media Relations: Video News Releases and Information Subsidies — Differing
  Perspectives on the Use of the Media — Special Publicity and Promotion Media: Brochures, Pamphlets,
  Graphic Materials, Direct and Electronic Mail, Audiovisual Materials, Multimedia Presentations
  The Public-Relations Process 165
  The Emerging Profession 166
  Body of Knowledge — Standard for Ethical Conduct — Controlled Access
  Ethics and Public Relations 172
  The Future of Public Relations, Viewed Globally 174
Summary 175 References 176

8  Advertising: Communication and Communication Support 178
  What is Advertising? 178
  Types of Advertising 180
  Classification by Audience — Classification by Message Content — Classification by Medium Used
  Historical Perspective 185
  The Rise of the Agency — Advertising in the 1990s
  The Institutions of Advertising 187
  Advertisers: Advertising and Marketing, Distribution and Advertising, Personal Selling and Advertising, Sales
  Promotion and Advertising, Advertising Expenditures, Advertising and Sales, Determining Advertising
  Expenditures — Advertising Agencies: The Major Agencies, Reasons for Using Agencies, What Agencies Do
  for Clients, Agency-Client Relationships, How Agencies Are Paid — The Mass Media: Media Sales
  The Advertising Process 197
  Situation Analysis: Sources of Information, Consumer Behavior and the Purchase Process, Awareness and Knowledge, Heavy Users, New Markets, Research about the Competition — Objectives — Strategies and Tactics — Evaluation
  Criticisms of Advertising 203
  Economic Criticisms — Social Criticisms
  The Regulation of Advertising 206
PART THREE

THE MASS-MEDIA INDUSTRIES

9 Newspapers

Historical Perspective

The Structure and Economics of the Industry Today

Declines and Rises — Newspaper Economics — Addressing a National Audience

The Changing Characteristics of Newspapers

The Newspaper Audience Today

The Specialized Press

Management and Technology in a Newspaper

A Time of Profound Change — Technological Advancement — The Future Newspaper

Summary

References

10 Television: Network, Cable, Public

Historical Perspective

The Golden Age Becomes One of Competition and Criticism

The Structure and Organization of Network Television

The Networks — The Stations — The Skirmishes for Independence

The Age of Cable: Television Since 1980

Satellites — Cable Television — The Economics of the Age of Cable — The Public Broadcasting Service

The Role of Television

Summary

References

11 Radio

Historical Perspective

The Renaissance of Radio

Growth Since 1960 — The Scope of Radio Today

The Structure and Organization of Radio
Kinds of Radio Stations: AM Classifications, FM Classifications, Other Classifications — Kinds of Networks
— Syndicators
Formats and Their Targets 293
The Characteristics and Roles of Radio 300
Local — Fragmented and Selective — Personal — Mobile — Social Responsibility — Secondary and Supplementary
Summary 302 References 303

12 Magazines and Periodicals ................................................................. 304

Historical Perspective 305
The First Magazines — Early America — The Nineteenth Century — The Magazine as a National Medium
The Contemporary American Magazine 309
Newsmagazines — City and Regional Magazines — Women’s Magazines — General-Interest Magazines — Special-Interest Magazines — Travel — Business and Professional Journals
Newsletters 316
The Comics 318
The Structure and Organization of Magazines 319
New Directions 321
Targeting — Controlled Circulation — Advertising vs. Editorial — Growth and Decline — Video Magazines
Summary 325 References 326

13 Filmed Entertainment ........................................................................... 327

Historical Perspective 327
The Structure of the Motion-Picture Industry 343
Production: The Process, Shooting Costs, Changes in the Process — Distribution — Exhibition
Economic Factors and the Future 348
Tracking the Audience — The Independent Filmmaker and the Niche — The VCR Revolution — Film and Television — The Global Factor
Summary 356 References 358

14 Recorded Music ................................................................................ 359

Historical Perspective 359
Recent Issues in the Recording Industry 372
The Rise of Heavy Metal and Rap
The Structure and Organization of the Recording Industry 376
The Economics and Future of the Recording Industry 381
Summary 384 References 385
15 Books .................................................................................................................. 386

Historical Perspective 387
The Format Emerges — Books in Early America — Development into a Mass Medium
The Book in the Twentieth Century 391
Developing the Interest in Books — Mass-Market Paperbacks — The Growth of Educational Publishing
The Structure and Organization of Book Publishing 394
Book Audiences 398
Niches as a Mainstay — Juvenile Publishing — The Rise and Fall of the Megasellers — Small Presses and Regional Publishing — Global Realignments
The Future of the Book 405
Summary 406
References 407

PART FOUR

THE FUNCTIONS OF THE MASS MEDIA .................................................................... 409

16 News and Information .......................................................................................... 411

When Does Information Become News? 413
Timeliness — Proximity — Prominence — Consequences — Human Interest
The Criteria of News Quality 415
Objectivity — Accuracy — Balance and Fairness
Issues in News Selection 416
Audience Reaction — The Irony of Objectivity — Journalist Bias
The Process Behind News Decisions 420
Investigative News Reporting 421
Radio and Television as News Media 423
Electronic Newsgathering — The Broadcast Communicators
Media Differences in the Presentation of News 427
Summary 429
References 430

17 Analysis and Commentary .................................................................................... 431

The Separation of Fact and Opinion 432
Media Institutions That Interpret and Analyze 434
Editorials: Print, Broadcast — Public Access — Interpretative and Background Reports — Summaries and Interpretations — Documentaries and Crusades
The Individual Vision and the Sole Voice 441
Columnists and Commentators — Photojournalists — Editorial Cartoonists
The Impact of Analysis and Interpretation 445
Summary 445
References 446

18 Instruction and Education .................................................................................... 447

Formal Education 447
Books and Videos — Magazines, Journals, and Data Bases — Newspapers — Sound Recordings — Motion
Pictures — Radio and Television: Television in the Classroom, Higher Education and Telecommunication,
19 Entertainment and Art ................................................................. 469
  Criticism and Defense of Mass Culture 470
  Analyzing What Entertains Us 473
  Evaluation — Analysis — Interpretation — Criticism Is an Art, Not a Science
  Semiotic Analysis 476
  Saussure and the Notion of Concepts — Peirce's System of Signs — Metaphor and Metonymy
  Psychoanalytic Criticism 480
  The Oedipus Complex — The Id, Ego, and Superego — Defense Mechanisms
  Marxist Analysis 484
  Dialectical Materialism — The Base and the Superstructure — False Consciousness — Alienation —
  Examples of Marxist Criticism
  Sociological Criticism 486
  Main Concepts: Anomie, Class, Ethnicity, Race, Sex, Social Role, Status, Stereotypes, Topical Analysis,
  Values
  Criticism Takes Effort 489
  Aspects of Genre Criticism 489
  Focal Points in the Study of Media 491
  The Work — Author — Audience — America (Society) — Medium
  Problems of Criticism 493
  Summary 495 References 496

PART FIVE

MEDI A ISSU ES ........................................................................... 497

20 Government and the Media .......................................................... 499
  Interpretations of the First Amendment 499
  Censorship and Prior Restraint 501
  The Question of National Security — The Pentagon Papers Case — The Progressive Magazine Case
  — Restrictions on Entertainment
  Libel 506
  Trials and Other Conflicts with the Judicial Branch 508
  Pretrial Publicity: To protect the jury — Gag Orders — Contempt of Court — Journalists as Sources of Information in Court Cases: Confidential News Sources, Search Warrants
  Media Access to Information 512
  Access to Court Proceedings — Cameras in the Courtroom — Administrative and Executive Branches — The Freedom of Information Act — Open Meetings
  Protection of Property and Copyright 518
  Summary 519 References 520
21 Media Ethics ................................................................. 521
Perspectives 523
The Debate Over Responsibility — Credibility and Confidence
Sources of Ethical Standards 527
The Theory of Universality — The Theory of Utilitarianism — Decision by Means of Projection — Putting Theory to the Test — Professional Codes — Institutional Ethics — Ethics and the Law
Types of Ethical Problems 535
Conflict of Interest — Truth/Accuracy/Fairness — Gathering Information — Privacy/Propriety — Physical Harm and Other Harm
Summary 543        References 544

22 Mass Media Impact on the Individual .................................. 546
Traditional Concerns of Mass-Communication Research 546
Methodologies — Cognition and Comprehension — Attitude and Value Change — Behavior Change
Major Studies of the Mass Media 551
Early Studies of Motion Pictures, Radio, and Comic Books — Research on the Interaction of Reactions —
Early Studies of Television
Government Involvement in Media Research 555
Violence — Pornography
Current Concerns 557
Televised Violence and Children — Television Advertising and Children — Prosocial Learning — The Impact of Images
Summary: The Model of Media Effectiveness 561
Variables: Environment, Content, Medium, Audience, Interaction — Reactions: Arousal, Short-Term Impact,
Long-Term Effects
References 563

23 Mass Media and Society .................................................. 565
Historical Perspective 566
The Power of the Printed Word — Acoustic Space, the Alphabet, and Electric Circuitry
The Role of the Mass Media in Socialization 568
The Mass Media and Significant Social Actions 570
Social Justice — Sexual Politics — Human Rights — Military Conflict
Mass Media and American Politics 577
Freedom of Communication and the Critical Consumer 578
The Spectre of Censorship — Potential Problems in Media Power
Summary 581        References 582

24 Media Issues in the Global Village .................................... 583
Global Concentration of Media Industries 583
Perspectives on Press Theories 589
The Authoritative System — The Soviet Communist System — The Libertarian System — Social-Responsibility System — Contemporary Press Philosophies — The Role of Economics
Press Freedom, Prosperity, and Media Use 595
Indicators of Media Availability — Freedom Index
Global Media Issues 600
The Flow of Information — Cultural Illiteracy — Access to Technology — Postmaterialistic Values — Global Ethics
Summary 607        References 607