MODELS FOR CHANGE IN SOCIAL GROUP WORK

Marian F. Fatout

ALDINE DE GRUYTER
New York
Contents

Preface
ix

PART I

1 Social Work with Groups: An Introduction
   - Historical Context
   - Group Work as a Part of Social Work Profession
   - The Mainstream Model
   - The Mainstream Model: A Foundation for Eclectic Practice
   - References
3

PART II

2 Person-Centered Group Work
   - Rogers' Evolution of the Model
   - Theoretical Approach
   - Modes of Helping
   - Person-Centered Group Therapy
   - Research Findings
   - References
29

3 The Behavioral Approach to Social Group Work
   - Historical Development of the Model
   - Theories of Behavioral Approaches
   - Behavioral Methodology in Groups
53