Contents

Preface xi

1

Sociological Approaches to the Study of Women 1

Women's Place in the History of Sociology 1
Positivist/Functionalist Theorists 2

Auguste Comte—Sociology as Social Science 2
Herbert Spencer—Evolution/Organicism 4
Emile Durkheim—Rules for the Sociological Method 5

Conflict Theorists 6

Karl Marx—Foundation Conflict Theories and the Use of the Dialectic 6
Max Weber—Status Conflict 7

Alternative Models in Traditional Sociology 8

Jane Addams—Social-Work Model 8
George Herbert Mead—Symbolic Interactionism 9

Contemporary Theoretical Approaches to the Study of Women 10
4

A Feminist Methodology 57

Feminist Research in Sociology 57
Feminist Methodology 58

Obstacles to Feminist Methodology 59

Feminist Critiques of Androcentric Research 61

Feminist Critique of Science 61
The Myth of a Value-Free Sociology 62
Quantitative vs. Qualitative 62

The Danger of a Unidimensional Feminist Methodology 62
The Research Process 64

Review of Previous Research 64
Selection of Population and Sample 64
Validity Issues 65
Interpretation of Research Results 65

Ethics of Research in a Sociology of Women 65

Objectification of Women as Research Objects 66
Research by, for, and about Women 66
Language as Used and Abused in Sociology 67
The Gatekeeping Process 67

Summary: A Feminist Methodology 67

5

Women and Work 69

Sex Segregation and the Labor Market 71

The Market for Women 72

Theories of Women’s Work 75

Functionalist Models of Inequality in Exchange 75
The Conflict Model: Wages and Work 79

Caretaking and Women’s Work 85

Double Jeopardy and Caretaking 86

Women’s Unpaid Labor 86

Unpaid Labor in Agriculture 87
Housework and Its Discontents 89
Volunteer Work 91

The Feminization of Poverty 93

The Material Conditions of Poverty 94
Women and Family Poverty 95
Older Women and Poverty 96
The Social Functions of Poverty 97
The Social Stigma of Poverty 98

Work and Value 99

Worker Resistance 100

A Global Agenda for Economic Action 101

Economic Equality and Development 101
Economic Security and Welfare 102
Child-Care and Family Strategies 102

Women and Schooling 104

Functionalist Theorists: Human Capital and Women's Education 105
Conflict Theorists: Culture and Conflict in the Schools 106
Schooling: A Gendered History 108

How Much Schooling? 108
Today's Profile 109

What Kind of Schooling? 111

Reinforcing Limited Sex Roles: Sex Bias in Texts 111
Sex Bias in Teacher Interaction: Elementary through High-School Years 113

Gendered Transitions: Women's Choices in Schooling and Work 114

Sex Bias in Higher Education 116
Sexual Harassment: Educational Control 117

Sex Segregation in the Schools 118

The Feminization of Teaching 118
Sex Segregation 120
Up the Education Ladder: Higher Education 122
Sex Segregation and Salaries 125

Heterosexism and the Schools 128

Lesbian/Gay Teachers and Students 129
Heterocentric Scholarship 131
Combatting Heterocentric Schooling 132

Cultural Colonization and the Schools 133

Formal Communication—Language 134
Informal Communication 136
Chicanas and the Public-School Curriculum 137
Women and the Law 142

Feminist Issues for a Sociology of Law: Influence of Patriarchy, Colonization, and Capitalism in the Administration and Development of Law 143

History of Women and the Law 143
A Contemporary Look 148

Feminist Issues for Criminology 152

Invisibility of the Female Actor—Women's Marginality as Criminals 152
Use of Official Statistics 153
Women's Crime Rate 153
Invisibility of Women in Correctional Facilities 156
Explanations of Female Crime 156
The Role of Status Offenses in Female Delinquency 163
History of the Sexualization of Female Crime 165

Women's Survival in a Culture of Violence 167

Misogyny 167
Survival in a World of Physical and Sexual Abuse 169

Conclusion 172

Women and Aging 173

The Discipline of Gerontology 176

Functionalist Theories 176
Socioenvironmental Theory 178
Critical Theories 179

Issues Specific to Elderly Women 180

Culture and Body Image 181
Marriage, Widowhood, and Divorce 181
Housing 182
Sexuality 183
Physical and Mental Health 184

The Intersection of Race, Class, Age, and Sex 186
The Intersection of Gender, Class, and Race 193

Women and Work 194
Women and Exchangeable Work 194
Women and Useful Work 195

Women and Schooling 196
Heterocentric Schools 197
Schooling Questions 197

Women and the Law 198
Women Policing the Crisis 198
Exchange Value and Women’s Criminology 198

Women and Aging 199
Use Value and Mothering 199
Culture, Body Image, and Sexuality Questions 200

But What about the (White/Anglo) Men? 200
Praxis and Policy 202
Collective Decision Making 203
Women’s Own Voices 204

References 205

Index 217