

The Black Community

Diversity and Unity

Second Edition

James E. Blackwell

University of Massachusetts at Boston

HarperCollins Publishers

Contents

List of Tables and Figures ix

Preface xi

CHAPTER 1 Introduction: To Be Black in America 1

A Search for a Relevant Theory	4
Parallel Structures and Pluralism	5
The Development of Pluralism	10
Internal Colonialism	11
Systems Theory and the Black Community	13
The Black Community Today	14
Functions of a Community	15
Demographic Characteristics	16
Functions of the Contemporary Black Church	25

CHAPTER 2 Employment, Poverty, and Welfare 31

Employment and Occupational Distribution	32
Income	52
Unemployment	60
Poverty and Hunger Among Black Americans	67
Consequences of Poverty	72
Special Programs	74
The Reagan Administration and Blacks	76

CHAPTER 3 The Black Family in American Society 81

The Impact of Slavery on the Black Family	81
Patterns of Family Life	84
Marriage Rates	85
Interracial Marriages	87
Authority Structure	91
Household Patterns	92
Family Functions	99
Controversial Family Issues in the Black Community	101
The Impact of Urbanization on the Black Family	109

CHAPTER 4 Stratification and Social Mobility	117
Perceptions of Social Class	117
Ethnic Stratification	119
The Formation of Social Classes in the Black Community	120
Indexes of Social Class	124
Social Stratification Within the Black Community Today	125
The Subterraneans	140
Mobility Patterns and Achievements	141
Blackness as a Value in Status and Mobility	143
Implications of Social Stratification for Black Unity	144
CHAPTER 5 Contemporary Issues in Education	150
Segregation in the Pre-1954 Period	150
Integration and Desegregation: Post-1954	153
Dysfunctional Consequences of Desegregation	157
Positive Aspects of Integration	161
Contemporary Issues in Public School Education	167
Higher Education	176
Black Students in White Colleges	186
CHAPTER 6 Housing: The Ghettoization of Blacks	194
Internal Colonialism and Black Ghettoization	194
Techniques of Discrimination in Housing	203
Legislation and Change	210
Protest Organizations	214
Blacks in Real Estate	215
Policy Commitments	216
CHAPTER 7 Black Capitalism and Human Resources	219
Contemporary Structure of the Black Enterprise System	220
Role of the Federal Government and the External Corporate Structure in Black Capitalism	231
Self-Help Organizations: Adaptive Responses	236
Human Resource Needs	240
CHAPTER 8 Black Political Power	243
The Development of a Critical Mass	243
Confrontation Politics	249
Urban Rebellions	253
Black Power and Black Liberation	255
Schisms in the Civil Rights Movement	257
Racial Conflict Since 1970	261
Voter Participation and Black Elected Officials	262

Relationship Between Blacks and Presidents Carter and Reagan	270
Other Strategy Conferences and Groups	272

CHAPTER 9 The Military and Black Life 277

Governmental Policy and Historical Roles	278
The Vietnam Period	282
Structure of Black Participation	283
Structure of the Selection Process	283
The Promotion System	284
The Structure of Grievance	285
Problems of Vietnam Veterans	290
The Post-Vietnam Period	293
Current Racial Issues in the Military	296

CHAPTER 10 Deviance and Health-Care Problems in Black Communities 301

Criminal Behavior	302
Violence and Aggressive Crimes	304
Acquisitive Crime	316
Crimes Against Blacks in the Black Community	319
Racism and the Administration of Justice	323
Ghetto Control Programs	326
Mental Health and Health Care	327
Alcoholism, Excessive Drinking, and Drug Abuse	329
Health Care and Health-Care Systems	336

CHAPTER 11 The Black Community in a White Society 343

The Radicalization of Black America	346
Changing Power Relations	356

Bibliography 363

Author Index 387

Subject Index 391