Part 1
Understanding Recreation and Leisure 1

Chapter 1
Recreation and Leisure Today: An Overview 2

- Different Views of Recreation and Leisure 3
- Leisure as a Career Field 4
- Social Factors Promoting the Recreation Movement 4
- Professionalism in Recreation Service 12
- Development of the Organized Recreation System 13
- Types of Recreation Sponsors 14
- Need for Professional Leadership 15
- Role of Professional Education 16
- Purposes of this Text 16
- Questions 18
- Suggested Readings 18
- Notes 18

Chapter 2
Basic Concepts of Play, Recreation, and Leisure 19

- The Meaning of Play 20
- Early Theories of Play 21
- Twentieth-Century Concepts of Play 25
- Typologies of Play Activity 26
- Psychological Analysis of Play 31
- Play Defined 33
Chapter 5
Recreation and Parks: The Modern Era

Growth of Public Recreation and Park Agencies
Federal Park Expansion
Emergence of the Recreation Movement: Three Pioneers
Public Concerns About Use of Leisure
Major Forces Promoting Recreation
Role of the Schools
Public Recreation During the 1920s
Effect of the Great Depression
The Effects of World War II
Postwar Developments: 1950s and 1960s
Era of Change and Challenge: 1970s and 1980s
Economic Setbacks: The Era of Limits
Trends Affecting Participation
Recreation in the 1980s
Overview of Canadian Recreation and Park Developments
Questions
Suggested Readings
Notes

Part 2
Organizing Recreation and Leisure

Chapter 6
Role of Federal, State, and Provincial Governments

Functions of Federal Government in Recreation, Parks, and Leisure Service
Overview of Federal Outdoor Recreation Programs
Other Federal Recreation Functions
Federal Programs for the Disadvantaged
Support of the Arts
Physical Fitness and Sports Promotion
Overview of Federal Recreation Programs
Recreation and Park Functions of State Governments
Functions of Canadian Federal and Provincial Governments
Questions
Suggested Readings
Notes
Social Values of Recreation 326
Intellectual Values of Recreation 331
Spiritual Values of Recreation 334
Recreation, Family Life, and Needs of the Major Age Groups 336
Questions 347
Suggested Readings 347
Notes 347

Chapter 15
Social Functions of Community Recreation 351

- Enriching the Quality of Community Life 352
- Contributing to Healthy Development of Participants 353
- Making the Community an Attractive Place to Live 353
- Preventing Antisocial Uses of Leisure 354
- Strengthening Neighborhood and Community Life 358
- Meeting Needs of Special Populations 359
- Strengthening Community Economic Well-Being and Stability 361
- Enriching Cultural Life 362
- Promoting Community Health and Safety 363
- Providing Needed Outlets for Ritual, Ceremony and Other Drives 364
- Summary of Social Goals: A Philosophical Statement 366
Questions 370
Suggested Readings 371
Notes 371

Chapter 16
Current Trends, Challenges, and Opportunities in Recreation and Leisure 373

- Problems of Fiscal Support for Recreation and Parks 374
- Changing Role of Public Leisure-Service Agencies 378
- Changing Framework of Leisure Values 381
- Preserving and Improving the Natural Environment 387
- Serving Special Populations: Women, Minorities, and Disabled 391
- National Awareness of Recreation and Leisure 399
- Education for Leisure, Past and Present 401
- Upgrading Professionalism in Recreation and Parks 403
- Need for Improved Research and Evaluation 405
Questions 408
Suggested Readings 409
Notes 409

Bibliography 413
Index 417