Film/Fiction volume 2

Trash Aesthetics
Popular Culture and Its Audience

Edited by Deborah Cartmell, I.Q. Hunter, Heidí Kaye
and Imelda Whelehan

Pluto Press
LONDON • CHICAGO, IL.
Contents

Introduction – Trash Aesthetics: Popular Culture and Its Audience
I.Q. Hunter and Heidi Kaye

1. Taking the Extreme Case: Understanding a Fascist Fan of Judge Dredd
   Martin Barker
   14

2. Regendered Reading: Tank Girl and Postmodernist Intertextuality
   Imelda Whelehan and Esther Sonnet
   31

3. The Readers Feminism Doesn’t See: Feminist Fans, Critics and Science Fiction
   Helen Merrick
   48

4. There’s No Accounting for Taste: Exploitation Cinema and the Limits of Film Theory
   Paul Watson
   66

5. Double Exposures: Observations on The Flesh and Blood Show
   Steve Chibnall
   84

6. Faecal Phantoms: Oral and Anal Tensions in The Tingler
   Mikita Brottman
   103

7. Seducing the Subject: Freddy Krueger, Popular Culture and the Nightmare on Elm Street Films
   Ian Conrich
   118

8. Cinematic Novels and 'Literary' Films: The Shining in the Context of the Modern Horror Film
   Steve Cramer
   132
9 'It's Always 1895': Sherlock Holmes in Cyberspace
   Roberta Pearson

Index