A Field Guide for Science Writers

Edited by

DEBORAH BLUM AND
MARY KNUDSON

New York    Oxford
OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS
1997
CONTENTS

Foreword Carl Sagan vii
Editors' Note ix

Part One GETTING STARTED
1. Introduction David Perlman 3
2. Covering Science for Newspapers Boyce Rensberger 7
3. Writing Science for Magazines Janice Hopkins Tanne 17
4. Writing for Trade and Science Journals:
   Trade Journals Julie Ann Miller 27
   Science Journals Richard Kerr 31
5. Broadcast Science Journalism:
   Reporting News David Ropeik 35
   Magazine Style Ira Flatow 38
6. Writing Books on Science Topics John Noble Wilford 43
7. Journalist and Scientist Co-authors Keay Davidson 51
8. Scientists Who Write about Science for the Public Meredith F. Small 57
9. When Your Office Is in Your Home:
   Freelance Writing Issues Jane E. Stevens 65
   Freelance Business Issues Joel N. Shurkin 69

Part Two TECHNIQUES OF THE TRADE
10. Telling a Good Tale Mary Knudson 77
11. Investigative Science Journalism Deborah Blum 86
12. Using Sources Joel Greenberg 94
13. Coping with Statistics Victor Cohn 102
14. Writing Articles from Science Journals Patrick Young 110
Contents

15. Voicing Opinion on Science:
  Science Columns Tom Siegfried 117
  Op-Ed Writing David Jarmul 122

Part Three  COVERING THE STORIES IN SCIENCE

16. Introduction  Mike Toner 127

17. Critical Coverage of Public Health and Government
  Abigail Trafford 131

18. Reporting on Biology of Behavior  Ronald Kotulak 142

19. Covering Infectious Diseases  Laurie Garrett 152

20. Reporting on Neuroscience  Sandra Blakeslee 161

21. Toxics and Risk Reporting  Richard F. Harris 166

22. Environmental Writing  Jim Detjen 173

23. Covering Earth Sciences  Charles Petit 180

24. Covering Physics  Kim A. McDonald 188

25. Writing About Astronomy  Michael D. Lemonick 196

26. Technology Writing  Jon Van 203

Part Four  WORKING OUTSIDE THE MEDIA

27. Introduction  Carol L. Rogers 213

28. Colleges and Universities  David F. Salisbury 217

29. Government Agencies  Rick E. Borchelt 226

30. Non-Profits, Small Research Laboratories, and Museums:
  Non-Profits  Phil Kibak 235
  Small Research Laboratories and Museums
  Cathy Yarbrough 238

31. Business and Industry:
  Drug Industry and Other Medical Business
  Candace S. Gulko 245
  Technology Companies  Michael Ross 251

Appendix: Sources of Information 257

Epilogue  Victor K. McElheny 281

Index 283