OWNERSHIP OF RIGHTS IN AUDIOVISUAL PRODUCTIONS

A Comparative Study

by

Marjut Salokannel

Researcher, Department of Private Law, University of Helsinki, Finland

KLUWER LAW INTERNATIONAL
THE HAGUE / LONDON / BOSTON
TABLE OF CONTENTS

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Section</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Preface</td>
<td>III</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Contents</td>
<td>V</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Abbreviations</td>
<td>XIII</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

INTRODUCTION

1. Audiovisual Authors and the Changing Audiovisual Environment: An Overview of the Historical Construction of Authorship in Cinematographic and Audiovisual Works

1. General

2. Film making as the interplay of technological, economic and artistic factors
   2.1 Photography
   2.2 The cinema
   2.3 Television
   2.4 Digital media
   2.4.1 General
   2.4.2 The deromantization of the author and the desacralization of the notion of the protected work

II The Work of Art in the Age of Numerical Reproduction

1. General

2. Audiovisual works and author's rights
   2.1 A protected work
   2.1.1 General observations
   2.1.2 Originality in the author's rights tradition
   Germany
   France
   Switzerland
Table of contents

4 Agreement on Trade-Related Aspects of Intellectual Property Rights and Ownership of Rights in Audiovisual Works ........................................ 114

5 Regulating ownership of rights in audiovisual works in the European Union .................................................................................................................. 116
  5.1 Harmonization of authorship in audiovisual works .................................. 116
  5.2 Protecting related rights in the European Union ...................................... 120
    5.2.1 Protecting the rights of performers in audiovisual productions .......... 120
    5.2.2 Phonogram producers ........................................................................ 122
    5.2.3 Protecting the rights of producers of audiovisual works .................. 123
  5.3 Some concluding remarks .......................................................................... 126
    5.3.1 The harmonization of authorship in audiovisual works .................. 126
    5.3.2 Harmonization of the rights of performers in audiovisual productions 127
    5.3.3 The legal status of audiovisual producers ........................................ 127

6 Authorship in audiovisual works ................................................................ 129
  6.1 Authorship in audiovisual works in certain European countries .......... 130
    6.1.1 Determination of authorship in audiovisual works in Germany ........ 131
    Rights of authors of pre-existing works .................................................. 132
    Rights of film authors ............................................................................. 133
    6.1.2 Determination of authorship in audiovisual works in France ........... 135
    6.1.3 Determination of authorship in audiovisual works in Belgium ........ 138
  6.2 Authorship in audiovisual works in the Nordic countries ...................... 140
    6.2.1 General ............................................................................................. 140
    6.2.2 Authors of pre-existing works .......................................................... 142
    6.2.3 Authors of cinematographic and audiovisual works ........................ 143
      The author of a cinematographic work: drawing the line between creative artistic work and technical skill ......................................................... 143
      Professionals having author's rights in cinematographic works in the Nordic countries ................................................................. 145
    6.2.4 The impact of collective administration of audiovisual rights on the determination of ownership of rights in audiovisual works in the Nordic countries 154
      General background .............................................................................. 155
      Professional categories entitled to remunerations for certain secondary uses of audiovisual works .................................................................
Table of contents

Assignment of audiovisual adaptation rights in pre-existing works .......................................................... 201
Assignment of audiovisual rights to the producer ......................................................................................... 203
Other limitations of rights of authors in favor of the producer ................................................................. 206
8.1.1.2 Ownership of performers’ related rights ......................................................................................... 208
8.1.2 France ............................................................................................................................................... 209
  8.1.2.1 Ownership of author’s exclusive rights ....................................................................................... 209
  Assignment of audiovisual adaptation rights in pre-existing works ....................................................... 209
  Assignment of audiovisual rights to the producer .................................................................................... 210
8.1.2.2 Ownership of performers’ related rights ....................................................................................... 216
8.1.3 Belgium .............................................................................................................................................. 218
  8.1.3.1 Ownership of author’s exclusive rights ....................................................................................... 218
  Assignment of audiovisual adaptation rights in pre-existing works ....................................................... 218
  Assignment of audiovisual rights to the producer .................................................................................... 219
  8.1.3.2 Ownership of performers’ related rights ....................................................................................... 221
8.1.4 Regulating assignment of audiovisual rights in some other countries ............................................. 221
8.2 Regulating the assignment of audiovisual rights in the Nordic countries ........................................... 222
  8.2.1 Sweden ........................................................................................................................................... 223
    8.2.1.1 Ownership of author’s exclusive rights ....................................................................................... 223
    Assignment of audiovisual rights to the producer .................................................................................... 223
    Reversion of rights in literary and musical works in case of non-exercise ........................................... 226
    8.2.1.2 Ownership of performers’ related rights ....................................................................................... 227
  8.2.2 Finland ............................................................................................................................................. 229
    8.2.2.1 Ownership of author’s exclusive rights ....................................................................................... 229
    Assignment of audiovisual rights to the producer .................................................................................... 229
    Reversion of rights in case of non-exercise ............................................................................................ 235
    8.2.2.2 Ownership of performers’ related rights ................................................................................... 235
  8.2.3 Denmark ........................................................................................................................................... 236
    8.2.3.1 Ownership of authors’ exclusive rights ....................................................................................... 236
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Section</th>
<th>Title</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>8.2.3.2</td>
<td>Ownership of performers' related rights</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>8.2.3.2</td>
<td>Assignment of audiovisual rights to the producer</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>8.2.4</td>
<td>Norway</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>8.2.4.1</td>
<td>Ownership of author's exclusive rights</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>8.2.4.2</td>
<td>Ownership of performers' related rights</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>8.2.5</td>
<td>Iceland</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>8.2.5.1</td>
<td>Ownership of authors' exclusive rights</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>8.2.5.2</td>
<td>Ownership of performers' related rights</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>8.2.6</td>
<td>Some concluding remarks with respect to regulating the assignment of audiovisual exploitation rights in the civil law tradition of author's rights</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>8.2.6.1</td>
<td>Continental Europe</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>8.2.6.2</td>
<td>Sweden</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>8.2.6.3</td>
<td>Denmark</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>8.2.6.4</td>
<td>Finland</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>8.2.6.5</td>
<td>Norway</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

9 Moral rights and ownership of rights in audiovisual works in the civil law countries

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Subsection</th>
<th>Title</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>9.1</td>
<td>General</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>9.1.1</td>
<td>Protecting the personal prerogatives of authors through moral rights</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>9.1.2</td>
<td>Some observations with regard to performers' moral rights protection with respect to their contributions in audiovisual works</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>9.1.3</td>
<td>The inalienability of moral rights</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>9.2</td>
<td>Specific regulation relating to the exercise of moral rights in audiovisual works</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>9.2.1</td>
<td>France</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>9.2.2</td>
<td>Germany</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>9.3</td>
<td>Right to preserve the integrity of the work and authorship in an audiovisual work: the Huston case</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>9.4</td>
<td>Some concluding remarks with regard to ownership of moral rights in audiovisual works</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

X
Table of contents

10 Ownership of rights in audiovisual works in the common law tradition ........................................ 286

10.1 Ownership of rights in audiovisual works in the United Kingdom ........................................ 287

10.1.1 Regulating authorship in audiovisual works ........................................................................ 287

10.1.2 Moral rights protection of authors of audiovisual works under the C.D.P.A. ...................... 290

  Right of attribution .................................................................................................................. 291

  Right to object to derogatory treatment ................................................................................. 292

  Other provisions relating to the moral rights protection under the C.D.P.A. ......................... 294

10.1.3 Rights in performances in connection with films ................................................................. 295

  Rights of performers .................................................................................................................. 296

  Rights of persons having recording rights .............................................................................. 296

10.1.4 Some concluding remarks .................................................................................................. 298

10.2 Ownership of rights in audiovisual works in the United States ............................................. 299

10.2.1 Authorship in audiovisual works ....................................................................................... 299

10.2.2 Protecting moral rights under the U.S. law and in contractual practice ......................... 306

10.2.3 Some concluding remarks .................................................................................................. 310

IV THE IMPACT OF DIGITIZATION ON OWNERSHIP OF RIGHTS IN AUDIOVISUAL WORKS .............................................. 313

1 Ownership of rights in works created in multimedia environment ........................................... 313

1.1 Multimedia applications as audiovisual works ......................................................................... 314

1.2 Multimedia applications as literary or artistic works ............................................................... 319

  1.2.1 Multimedia applications as literary works ........................................................................ 319

  1.2.2 Multimedia applications as artistic works ......................................................................... 320

1.3 Multimedia applications as collections of works or as composite works ............................ 321

1.4 Multimedia applications as collective works .......................................................................... 325

1.5 Multimedia applications as databases ....................................................................................... 327

1.6 The impact of Directive 96/9/EC on the legal protection of databases on the definition of rightowners in audiovisual works ................................................................. 328

  1.6.1 General .................................................................................................................................. 328

  1.6.2 Directive 96/9/EC on the legal protection of databases and rightownership in audiovisual works .................................................................................................................. 329

    1.6.2.1 Databases protected by copyright .................................................................................. 329

XI
1.6.2.2 The sui generis protection for the makers of the database ........................................ 334

2 Some concluding remarks on the impact of digitization on ownership of rights in audiovisual works ................................................................. 335

V CONCLUDING REMARKS: ownership of rights in audiovisual works ............................................ 337

1 Original ownership of rights in audiovisual works ................................................................. 338
  1.1 General ................................................................................................................................. 338
  1.2 Ownership of rights in audiovisual works and regulating the exercise of audiovisual rights with regard to the completed audiovisual work ........................................... 339
    1.2.1 Ownership of economic rights in the civil law countries ........................................ 339
    1.2.2 Regulating the exercise of authors' moral rights ..................................................... 342
    1.2.3 Some comparative remarks with regard to the common law tradition of copyright .................................................. 344

2 Ownership of related rights in audiovisual productions .......................................................... 345
  2.1 Performers ........................................................................................................................... 345
    2.1.1 Economic rights of performers .................................................................................. 345
    2.1.2 Regulating the exercise of performers' moral rights ............................................. 347
  2.2 Producers of audiovisual works and other audiovisual fixations ........................................ 348
    2.2.1 General framework of producers related rights protection in the Nordic countries .............................................. 348
    2.2.2 Some concluding observations with regard to producers' related rights protection ........................................... 349

3 Finally .................................................................................................................................... 350

Bibliography ............................................................................................................................. 355
Legislative documents .................................................................................................................. 365
Table of cases ............................................................................................................................ 371
Index .......................................................................................................................................... 375

XII