International Radio Journalism
History, theory and practice

Tim Crook

London and New York
Contents

List of plates viii
Acknowledgements ix

Part I

INTRODUCTION: PRACTICE, THEORY AND HISTORY

1 From Box Room to Digital Control Room 3
2 Basic Skills, Listening and Contacts 14
3 Experience, Print Media, Languages and Multimedia 19
4 Attitudes and News 26
5 Objectivity and Theory 41

Part II

RADIO JOURNALISM HISTORY: ORIGINS TO 1939

6 The Origins 57
7 The Political and Journalistic Use of Early Recording Technology 63
8 Early Radio Journalism 69
International radio journalism

9 The Political Dimension of Sound Journalism 77
10 Sport: a springboard for spontaneity 83
11 Radio Drama: a source of innovation and sensational treatment 87
12 Appeasement and Fascism: radio's response through journalism 91

Part III

PRACTICE SKILLS AND CONTEMPORARY PRACTICE

13 The Voice and the A to Z of Presentation 111
14 Using Portable Equipment 118
15 Writing Radio News 122
   Glossary of Radio News and A to Z of Vocabulary and Principles 122

Part IV

THE SECOND WORLD WAR: FROM ADOLESCENCE TO ADULTHOOD

16 The Phoney War and the Fall of France 179
17 The Holocaust and Other Horrors 192
18 Dieppe, Pearl Harbor, D-Day and other Campaigns 209

Part V

INTERNATIONAL MEDIA LAW FOR RADIO JOURNALISTS

19 Defamation 221
20 Contempt of Court, Access to Court Proceedings and Other Restrictions 231
21 Sources, Election Law and Other Matters 246
Part VI

MODERN STYLES OF RADIO REPORTING AND JOURNALISM

22 The History and Development of UK Independent Radio Journalism 261

23 Contrasting Styles of Contemporary Radio Journalism 281

Bibliography 287

Index 301