

"Much Ado About Nothing?"

Evaluation of Learning and Teaching and its Consequences

Conference at the University of Rostock
September 6th-8th, 1998

Beiträge zur Hochschulpolitik 5/1999

Contents

Page

Sabine Teichmann, Philipp Busch

About these proceedings

5

Jürgen Lüthje

Introduction

9

Evaluation and its consequences

Günther Wildenhain

On the practice of evaluation of courses and teaching

13

Regine Marquardt

Evaluation as a building block of an innovative higher education policy

17

Klaus Landfried

Conditions for successful quality assurance in study and teaching

23

Fritz Schaumann

The significance of quality assurance in higher education policy

29

Michael Daxner

Evaluation, indicators and accreditation
Moving towards the self-justification society

39

Tanja Jeschke

Summary of following discussion

49

Philipp Busch

Summary of reports from the working groups

53

Evaluation and accreditation

Josef Lange

Objectives and consequences of linking evaluation and accreditation 59

Charles M. Cook

Accreditation of institutions and study programs in higher education - Experiences in the USA 67

Tanja Jeschke

Summary of following discussion 79

Arguments relating to the topic of the accreditation of courses of study in Germany 83

Speakers 87

Participants 88

Organisation committee 98