

ESCP-EAP Working Paper

No. 21

December 2006

Measuring Board Internationalization – Towards a More Holistic Approach

Stefan Schmid

Andrea Daniel

ESCP-EAP

LONDON PARIS BERLIN
MADRID TORINO

European School of Management

Authors:

Prof. Dr. Stefan Schmid
Dipl.-Psych. Andrea Daniel
Chair of International Management and Strategic Management
ESCP-EAP
European School of Management Berlin
Heubnerweg 6
14059 Berlin
Germany
T: ++49(0)30 / 32007 136
F: ++49(0)30 / 32007 107
stefan.schmid@escp-eap.de

Editor:

ESCP-EAP
European School of Management Berlin
Heubnerweg 6
14059 Berlin
Germany
T: ++49(0)30 / 32007 147
F: ++49(0)30 / 32007 108
workingpaper-berlin@escp-eap.de www.escp-eap.de

ISSN: 1619-7658

Contents

1	Introduction	1
2	“Internationalization” of Top Management Teams.....	2
2.1	Multinationality	2
2.2	International Experience	3
2.3	International Network Ties	5
2.4	Foreign Language Proficiency	6
2.5	Cultural Differentiation.....	7
2.6	Concluding Remarks.....	8
3	Methodology.....	8
3.1	Data Source	9
3.2	Dimensions and Measures.....	9
3.3	Calculation of the Indices	12
3.4	Sample.....	17
4	Empirical Findings	19
4.1	Description of the Analyzed Individuals.....	19
4.2	Internationalization of Individual Board Members	22
4.3	Internationalization at Firm Level	26
5	Discussion	31
5.1	Limitations Stemming from the Analyzed Individuals	31
5.2	Limitations Stemming from the Development of Indices	32
5.3	Comparison of the Three Indices	34
5.4	Implications for Top Management Team Internationalization Research...	34
	References	36
	Appendix	41
	Appendix A Distribution of Index Values for Management Board Members, Shareholders’ Representatives and Employees’ Representatives	41

Appendix B	Results of the Chi ² -Tests to Determine the Relationship between the Four Dimensions of Internationalization	43
Appendix C	Industry Clusters	46
Appendix D	Relationship between Index Measures, Firm Size and Internationalization of Firm Activities.....	49