Wimmer, Jeffrey / Mitgutsch, Konstantin
Rosenstingl, Herbert (Ed.) (2012):

Applied Playfulness.

Proceedings of the Vienna Games Conference 2011:

Future and Reality of Gaming
Table of Content

Jeffrey Wimmer, Konstantin Mitgutsch and Herbert Rosenstingl
Introduction: Applied Playfulness ............................................ 9

PART A: Applied Gaming in Education and Learning

Vít Šisler, Michaela Buchtová, Cyril Brom, Zdeněk Hlávka
Towards Empirical–Theoretical Framework for Investigating Learning Effects of Serious Games:
A Pilot Study of Europe 2045 ..................................................... 16

Pilar Lacasa, Sara Cortés, Rut Martinez, Laura Méndez
Machinima as a way of looking for multimodal literacies ............... 37

Mario Lehenbauer, Oswald D. Kothgassner, Anna Felnhofer, Lisa M. Glenk
Play for change? A psychological view on computer games ............ 55

Kasper Rodil, Søren Eskildsen and Matthias Rehm
Virtual Savannah – in Situ Test of a Virtual Learning 3D Visualization for children ......................................................... 67

Sébastien Hock-koon
Affordances of learning in arcade video games:
Introducing “elliptical mechanisms” .......................................... 74

Nina Grünberger
What shall I do? – Play!
Play as means of overcoming crises in learning processes ............ 80

Linda Breitlauch
Conceptual design for serious games regarding didactical and playfully requirements ..................................................... 91

André Czauderna & Birgit Schmitz
Social Research as a Means of Target-Group-Specific Serious Game Development. The case of SpITKom ........................................... 98
PART B: Applied Research on Players and Playing

PART B.1: Applied Research on Players

Christoph Klimmt, Julia Ahrens

Paying for a Little Extra Fun: Exploring Online Gamers’ Willingness to Purchase Digital Items .......................................................... 108

Angelica B. Ortiz de Gortari, Karin Aronsson, Mark D. Griffiths

Exploring Game Transfer Phenomena in Young People .................. 120

Michaela Rizzolli

Material Culture in Online Playgrounds ................................. 134

PART B.2: Applied Research on Playing

Sabine Schollas & Felix Raczkowski

Playing with reality: the magic circle and the theory of clear boundaries in times of alternate and augmented reality games .... 142

Nikolaus König

“Playful Assassins” – How playful actions can balance conflicting demands, and how a mechanical concept of play can make this kind of playfulness tangible .......................... 153

Jaakko Suominen and Saara Ala-Luopa

Playing with Pac-Man: A Life and Metamorphosis of a Game Cultural Icon, 1980–2011 ................................................................. 165

Ferreira Alexandra and Hock-Koon Sébastien

Gender stereotypes in video games:
Super Princess Peach in question .................................................. 177

Nikolaus König

Passivity, Subordination and Restraints – Sexual Roleplaying Games of Submission and Dominance as examples for pleasurable play through Non-Agency ............................................. 185

Markus Wiemker

Sex, Drugs and Violence Rock. The Role of Censorship and Regulation in Digital Games ................................................................. 191
Ilaria Mariani
A ludic approach to the local identity communication 201

Notburga Siller
Playing History: The representation and reception of the past in commercial computer games 211

Stephan Schwingeler
Kunst mit Computerspielen: Künstlerische Strategien und kunsthistorische Bezüge 219

PART C: Applied Game Design Research

Bleumers Lizzy, Willaert Koen, Heyman Rob and Jacobs An
Ladders and snakes: Lessons learned from applying contextual laddering to game prototype evaluation 238

Fares Kayali, Margarete Jahrmann, Josef Ortner, Brigitte Felderer
Alternate Reality Games – Persuasion in Context 253

Sonja Einböck and Ursula Maier-Rabler
Where play and work meet... or merge?
Modding as a precursor to new work concepts 267

Thomas Wagner
Urban Playfulness: Creating novel experiences in an urban environment 280

PART D: Abstracts of the Conference

Additional Abstracts

FROG 2011 Keynote Abstracts 290

FROG 2011 Abstracts of unpublished presentations 294

Author Information 315