Wolf-Dietrich Greinert

The »German System«
of Vocational Education

History, Organization, Prospects

Nomos Verlagsgesellschaft
Baden-Baden
Table of Contents

Publisher's preface 8
Author's preface 9

1. Introduction: the character of the system and the logic underlying the development of a dual system of vocational training 11
   1.1 Elements of the system 11
   1.2 The development of a system 17

2. The founding era of the dual system of vocational training (1870-1920): restoration of craft trade apprenticeships and further training schools 22
   2.1 Issue (I): the decline in craft trades and the dissolution of craft trade apprenticeships 22
   2.2 The political answer to the decline of the old middle class: middle class policies in the German Empire 24
   2.3 The controlling instrument of restoration: laws governing trade and industry 27
   2.4 Issue (II): the gap in education between the end of primary school and military service 30
   2.5 The answer to the gap in secondary socialization: further training schools and youth welfare 32
   2.6 Control instruments of further training school policy: compulsory school attendance and curricula 35
   2.7 The system and character of vocational training in Germany before 1918 38

3. The consolidation phase in dual vocational training (1920-1970): typical industrial apprenticeship and the vocational school 41
   3.1 Between tradition and scientific rationality: the segmentation of in-company training by industry 41
      3.1.1 Issue (I): a dual economic structure and the qualification interests of industry 41
      3.1.2 Industrial training policy: from the "hard-working journeyman" to the skilled worker 44
      3.1.3 Industry's new training model: vocational training as an element of scientific plant management 47
   3.2 From civic education to specialized theoretical education: the era of the classical compulsory vocational school 51
      3.2.1 Issue (II): radical political change and the legitimacy crisis of further training schools 51
      3.2.2 Vocational school policy 1920-1970: the organizational development of compulsory vocational schools 54