

YOUTH UNEMPLOYMENT AND SOCIAL EXCLUSION IN EUROPE

A comparative study

Edited by Torild Hammer

Contents

List of tables and figures	iv
Notes on contributors	vi
one Introduction Torild Hammer	I
two Method and research design Jan Carle and Torild Hammer	21
three Unemployment, integration and marginalisation: a comparative perspective on 18- to-24-year olds in Finland, Sweden, Scotland and Spain Andy Furlong and Fred Cartmel	29
four Processes of marginalisation at work: integration of young people in the labour market through temporary employment Ivan Harsløf	45
five Recurrence of youth unemployment: a longitudinal comparative approach Isabelle Recotillet and Patrick Werquin	67
six Scheme participation and employment outcome of young unemployed people: empirical findings from nine European countries Hans Dietrich	83
seven Youth participation in the labour market in Germany, Spain and Sweden Floro Ernesto Caroleo and Francesco Pastore	109
eight Surviving unemployment: a question of money or families? Torild Hammer and Ilse Julkunen	135
nine Buffers and predictors of mental health problems among unemployed young women in countries with different breadwinner models Ilse Julkunen and Ira Malmberg-Heimonen	155
ten Economic hardship, employment status and psychological wellbeing of young people in Europe José Luis Álvaro and Alicia Garrido	173
eleven Welfare regimes and political activity among unemployed young people Jan Carle	193
twelve Concluding remarks Torild Hammer	207
Appendix: Samples and attrition	213
Index	225