

Transformations of the State?

Edited by
Stephan Leibfried
and Michael Zürn

 CAMBRIDGE
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

A new perspective on the state	1
1 Reconfiguring the national constellation	1
Michael Zürn and Stephan Leibfried
The modern territorial state: limits to internationalization of the state's resources	37
2 The monopoly of legitimate force: denationalization, or business as usual?	37
Markus Jachtenfuchs
3 Globalization and the transformation of the tax state	53
Philipp Genschel
The rule of law: internationalization and privatization	73
4 Is there an emerging international rule of law?	73
Bernhard Zangl
5 Free trade: the erosion of national, and the birth of transnational governance	93
Christian Joerges and Christine Godt
The democratic nation state: erosion, or transformation, of legitimacy	119
6 Is there a legitimization crisis of the nation state?	119
Achim Hurrelmann, Zuzana Krell-Laluhová, Roland Lhotta, Frank Nullmeier and Steffen Schneider
7 National and transnational public spheres: the case of the EU	139
Bernhard Peters, Stefanie Sifft, Andreas Wimmel, Michael Brüggemann and Katharina Kleinen-von Königslöw	